Center For the Arts room 225, 3:30pm – 6:00
Office Hours: 12:30pm – 1:30pm, T/TR, 2:30pm – 3:30pm M/W (or by appointment)

Graduate Seminar is a unique course designed to stimulate creative thought. As the graduate student hones his/her skills in the studio, this course will help him/her have a greater understanding of contemporary ideas in the world of art.

This course is structured around participation in class discussions, and art events in the local community. Students are also expected to make presentations to the class about their own work.

Student Learning Outcomes
Each student will be able define his/her own style in art.
Each student will develop an understanding of appropriate presentation of the various kinds and formats.
Each student will be able to discuss and present his/her work during a studio visit.
Each student will be able to understand the basics of studio technology and safety.

Reading for this seminar includes excerpts from books: The Reenchantment of Art by Suzi Gabblik, From Where You Dream by Robert Olen Butler, and Just Kids by Patti Smith
