Course Description:

Introduction to Criminal Justice is an overview course designed to familiarize students with the reality of crime in America and major issues in the American Criminal Justice System. The course will address issues pertaining to the history and philosophy of the American criminal justice system as well as criminal law, policing, courts, corrections, and current issues in criminal justice. Students should gain an introductory as well as a critical understanding of the American Criminal Justice System through lectures, readings, assignments and guest speaker presentations.

Course Objectives:

- Identify the major concepts and components (law enforcement, courts and corrections) of the American Criminal Justice System as well as the major myths and their realities relating to crime and the American Criminal Justice system.

- Understand the steps in the criminal justice process, the major sources of crime data as well as past/current crime trends, the relationship between the U.S. Constitution, U.S. Supreme Court decisions, and the components of the criminal justice system and the historical and current trends within policing, courts, and corrections.
- Define goals of punishment and how the American Criminal Justice system punishes criminal offenders.

- Demonstrate a critical understanding of criminal justice in the United States.

Learning Outcomes - By the end of the course, you should be able to:

1. Discuss basic concepts and terminology in criminal justice, including the three main components of the criminal justice system;
2. Provide a basic definition of crime, identify different types of crime, describe crime statistics in America, and discuss the causes of crime;
3. Explain the criminal justice process and discuss the role of each component in the system’s response to crime: including the history and structure of policing, the stages of the court process, the structure of corrections and the role of criminal sanctions.

DISABLED STUDENT POLICY

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services Office at (361) 825-5816 or visit the office in Driftwood 101. Students with a disability which affects their academic performance are expected to arrange for a conference with the instructor in order that appropriate strategies can be considered to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS

Grade Appeal Process: As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal.

A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. If the problem cannot be resolved at this level, the student may take the steps below.

1. Presentation of grievance to instructor. (This step must be taken within fourteen calendar days after the beginning of the next term.)
2. Appeal to department chair or area coordinator.
3. Written appeal to the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
4. Preliminary review and advising by an ombudsman appointed by the Provost.
5. Submission of file by department chair to the chair of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
6. Review of file by committee chair and submission of case to committee.
7. Proceedings of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee. (Committee holds hearing, reviews data, presents findings to all parties, and makes recommendation to Provost.)
8. Decision by Provost.
9. Final appeal in writing to the Provost if student or instructor thinks appropriate procedures have not been followed.

For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.htm. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Late exams, papers, and discussion posts will result in an automatic 5 point reduction per day.

Exams
Two exams will be administered in this course. Each exam will count for one-quarter of your grade (100 points per exam). There will be 70 multiple choice questions per exam (1 point per question) in addition to a short essay portion (3 short essays; worth up to 10 points per response). Exams will cover the assigned readings and the PowerPoint lectures. Exam #1 will cover readings and PP slides from Weeks 1-2. Exam #2 cover readings and PP slides from Weeks 3-5.

TIP: Read the chapters first and then review the PowerPoint Presentations and documents for each week. The exams will draw primarily from the PP material but chapter readings will supplement the PP presentations. Use the exam review to study for the exam. You only have ONE opportunity to take the exam. Once you start, you need to finish in the time allotted (2 hours).

Short Paper

One short paper is due at the end of Week 4. The paper is worth 100 points. The paper assignment guidelines are discussed below. Papers must be no less than four pages, typed and double-spaced (one-inch margins, 12-point font). Plagiarism WILL NOT be tolerated. Make sure to use APA-style documentation. Outside sources MUST be documented!

Death Penalty Paper Guidelines

Your paper must be a MINIMUM of 4 pages. The purpose of the paper is to objectively discuss the arguments for and against capital punishment. These arguments should be drawn from textbook information, PP slides and extra resources. In the final paragraph of the paper, you may give your opinion (“Are you for or against the death penalty?”) and explain your reasoning.

1. Define capital punishment. (10 points)
2. Objectively discuss the positions for and against the death penalty. (50 points)
3. State your opinion and why you have this opinion. (20 points)
4. Include citations and references (APA)! (10 points)
5. Format/writing/organization (10 points)

Weekly Discussions

Each week, students are required to participate in class discussions. Participation in weekly discussions is very important as they make up 25% of your total grade in the course. Each week, one discussion topic will be presented. You are required to post ONE main response to the discussion question and respond to at least one other student post for each question for a minimum of two posts each week. Your responses to the questions must be posted by THURSDAY of each week. Responses to student posts should be posted by SUNDAY of each week (by Friday in the final week). All students are expected to participate in the threaded discussions. The quality of your posts and responses will be evaluated to determine your weekly discussion grade (20 points possible each week).

Discussion posts and responses should be thorough, critical, and well written. Make sure to provide complete references (in APA) for authors you cite in the body of your response, including the textbook. Make sure references are correctly cited in APA, including websites. You need to provide the correct website link in APA so that it is easy for your classmates (and me) to locate. Whenever possible, apply textbook concepts to real world issues. I encourage you to provide examples and experiences from the real world; your own experiences, something you read in the news, etc. A more familiar, conversational tone is acceptable (unlike papers which require a more academic or professional tone). However, make sure to proofread your responses prior to posting. Look for spelling and grammatical errors. You are encouraged to critically examine what you read!

Concluding Remarks

If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, do not hesitate to give me a call/send me an e-mail. I am available to assist you with information pertaining to this course and to the criminal justice system in general.
