I. COURSE DESCRIPTION
EDCI 5390.001 Special Topics Seminar for the Internship Teacher
This course is a supervised classroom teaching field experience and seminar designed to assist the not fully certified teacher with the application of various aspects of planning for teaching. Enrollment is limited to graduate students seeking initial teacher certification. Interns must be enrolled in EDCI 5306 or completed EDCI 5306.

II. RATIONALE (GOALS)
The purpose of this course is to support not fully certified teachers at the beginning of their teaching career. It is designed to aid the individual teacher to enhance existing teaching skills in the classroom and to retain and support beginning teachers in the profession of education. The internship may be substituted for three hours of student teaching in order for a beginning teacher to earn an income in a teaching position while fulfilling certification requirements.

III. STATE ADOPTED PROFICIENCIES
1. LEARNER-CENTERED KNOWLEDGE: The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.
2. LEARNER-CENTERED INSTRUCTION: To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identified needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.
3. EQUITY IN EXCELLENCE FOR ALL LEARNERS: The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.
4. LEARNER-CENTERED COMMUNICATION: While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.
5. LEARNER-CENTERED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students’ success, demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain ethics and personal integrity.

X. COURSE SCHEDULE
A Tentative Course Schedule will be provided the first class meeting and adjusted as necessary by the course instructor throughout the semester. Individual classroom visits will be scheduled with the university field supervisors.

XI. COURSE POLICIES
A. Course Policies
1. Attendance
   Attendance is required for the entire class time at each class meeting. A maximum of two excused absences will be allowed (i.e., Open House, PTA, illness). Ten points will be deducted for each absence beginning with the third absence. Five points will be deducted for arriving late or leaving class early.
2. Assignments
   All assignments are due on the dates indicated on the Tentative Course Schedule or as announced in class. The student is responsible for content, materials, and announcements made in class when absent.
3. Videotaped observation
   The university field supervisor will tape the beginning teacher during the second observation. The teacher will have the videotape and equipment set up before the time of the observation. If equipment is unavailable, arrangements will be made with the university field supervisor.
4. Rescheduling observations
   If an observation must be rescheduled due to illness, emergency, or a change in schedule, call your university field supervisor IMMEDIATELY and reschedule the observation as soon as possible.
5. Make-up work
Make-up work must be discussed with the course instructor prior to the final due date.

6. Cellular phones and pagers
   Please turn off cellular phones and pagers during class. They may be used in the quiet mode for emergencies only.

XIV. BIBLIOGRAPHY
The knowledge bases that support course content and procedures include:

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Driftwood 101.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
