Course Description: A survey of the political, social, economic, military, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from 1865 to the present. Satisfies the university core curriculum requirement in United States History.

Textbook: CREATED EQUAL: A SOCIAL AND POLITICAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES (3rd Brief Edition. Combined volume). In regard to the textbook and access to myhistorylab.com, which accompanies the text book, you have these options:
1. Purchase CREATED EQUAL: A HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES package Texas A& University. (Available in bookstores. Access to myhistorylab.com will be included in this package.)
2. If you have CREATED EQUAL 3rd edition from last semester, you will be able to use this book, which includes access to myhistorylab.com
3. If you have an older version of CREATED EQUAL, you will need to purchase the stand-alone myhistorylab.com, which can be done on line by going to myhistorylab.com.

Student Learning Outcomes:

* To demonstrate an understanding of the history of the United States since 1865, including its major concepts, themes, methods, and theoretical approaches by producing short reflection papers, topic papers, and essay exams.

* To demonstrate an understanding of how historical sources are used, how historians utilize historiography to build scholarship, and to interpret the past by reading, writing and commenting in class.

* To identify, synthesize and interpret historical arguments and to explain these arguments cogently in writing assignments and in class discussions.

* To apply the skills and knowledge learned in the course by successfully completing essay exams, and other papers as assigned.
Graded Activities

Your course grade will be determined by the following activities:

Scores on three major exams to be administered on February 1, March 7, and April 25, as well as a final exam to be administered as indicated on the Texas A&M Corpus Christi final exam schedule.

All exams will include a minimum of 33 objective questions and a maximum of 50 questions (multiple choice, true–false, etc.), as well as one or two essay questions. The questions will be taken from lectures and reading assignments.

All exams have the same value (25%) in determining your grade in the course. The grades for the four tests will be added together and divided by the number of tests (4). An average of 90 or above will earn an A, 80–89 would be a B, 70–79 a C, 60–69 a D, and an average below 60 would earn a grade of F.

Classroom Etiquette

(“The conventional rules for conduct or behavior in polite society.”—THE WORLD BOOK DICTIONARY.)

While it is impossible to make a list of “conventional rules for conduct,” it is expected that you will conduct yourself as a college student. Most importantly, your conduct must not interfere with the rights of other students to learn. This means, for example, that talking to another person in class while the instructor is talking or another student is asking or answering a question, will not be permitted. If you do not conduct yourself within these “rules for conduct in polite society,” you will be asked to leave the class.

Because communication devices such as cell phones are a distraction, students may not use these devices while the class is in session. Lap top computers and other devices that are used to make notes are permitted, but cell phones for texting or other uses will not be permitted and will be confiscated.

Class Attendance

Attendance is an essential element in your success in this class, and attendance, will be expected. The instructor will take roll. However, should it be necessary for you to miss class, it is your responsibility to obtain the notes, assignments, and other material covered in the class you missed.
Make-up Policy

Should you miss a major exam, April 30 has been designated as the class day when you will be able to make up an exam. Prior to the make-up exam date, the student should inform the instructor that he or she wishes to take a make-up exam. Questions on the make-up exam will be essay questions, as well as identify, definition, and listing questions.

Students With Disabilities

Notice to Students with Disabilities: Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi complies with the Americans with Disabilities act in making responsible accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you suspect that you have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric disability, etc.) please contact the Services for Students with Disabilities Office, located in Driftwood 101, at 825-5816. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see the instructor as soon as possible.

Academic Advising

The College of Liberal arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty member, and the department chair. The College Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

Grade Appeal Process

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibility of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade appeals and University Procedure 13.02.99C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeals process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
