I. COURSE DESCRIPTION
The graduate project serves as a capstone experience applying the knowledge gained in this program. Prerequisite: KINE 5307.

II. RATIONALE
The course provides students with the skills necessary to conduct a research study in kinesiology.

III. ADOPTED PROFICIENCIES

A. LEARNER-CENTERED KNOWLEDGE: The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.

B. LEARNER-CENTERED INSTRUCTION: To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identifies needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.

C. EQUITY IN EXCELLENCE FOR ALL LEARNERS: The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.

D. LEARNER-CENTERED COMMUNICATION: While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.

E. LEARNER-CENTERED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students’ success, demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain ethics and personal integrity.

V. COURSE OBJECTIVES/LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. All students will be assigned a directed research project by their faculty research advisor.
2. Each student must complete the TAMUCC Institutional Review Board (IRB) application process prior to conducting any data collection <http://research.tamucc.edu/irbgeninfo.html>.
3. Students are expected to contact their major advisor a minimum of every two weeks. Additional meetings should be arranged as needed. Students that do not meet this obligation may fail the course.
4. All students are required to present an oral report (PowerPoint presentation) of their completed projects to their faculty research advisor.

VI. COURSE TOPICS

1. Assigning the directed research project.
2. Completing the TAMUCC IRB application process.
3. Data collection and methodology.
4. Data analysis.
5. Results and conclusions.
6. Developing and presenting an oral report.

VII. INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND ACTIVITIES
A. Traditional Experiences: written assignments, field experiences, data collection, data analysis.

VIII. EVALUATION AND GRADE ASSIGNMENTS

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Select a directed research project.
2. Complete the TAMUCC Institutional Review Board (IRB) application process prior to conducting any data collection <http://research.tamucc.edu/irbgeninfo.html>.
3. Conduct research study, data collection, and data analysis in accordance with the research proposal guidelines.
4. Make an oral presentation of your completed graduate project to the faculty research advisor.

NOTE: Late assignments will not be accepted. All written work must exhibit a graduate level competency in spelling, grammar, punctuation, and style. Written work with significant mechanical flaws will not be accepted.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Students are required to punctually attend all meetings. Excused absences are limited to participation in a TAMUCC sanctioned event or participation in a religious holy day as outlined in the University catalog. Any assignment, quiz, or test missed due to a TAMUCC sanctioned event must be completed prior to the absence. Coursework, assignments, and quizzes may not be made up due to tardiness. Consistent and punctual attendance is critical to the successful completion of this course.

STUDENT CONDUCT
Professional behavior is expected of all students. Inappropriate conduct (cursing, disruption, etc.) may result in a reduced final grade or failure of the course. All cell phones will be turned off or to the inaudible mode during class. Do not answer a call during class. Do not leave the classroom to answer a call, unless you anticipate an emergency call and warn me prior to class.

CONDITIONS THAT AFFECT PARTICIPATION
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) - The ADA is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disability. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, you must contact the Disability Services Office (DSO) at (361)825-5816 or visit the office in Driftwood 101. Any accommodations needed are required to come through the DSO. The DSO will then contact your professor and set up necessary provisions. Do not seek accommodations directly from your professor because professors do not have the authority to make such decisions/modifications.

ACADEMIC HONESTY
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.)

Disciplinary action for academic misconduct is the responsibility of the faculty member assigned to the course. The faculty member is charged with assessing the gravity of any case of academic dishonesty, and with giving sanction to any student involved. Penalties that may be applied to individual cases of academic dishonesty include one or more of the following:

1. Written reprimand;
2. Requirement to re-do work in question;
3. Requirement to submit additional work;
4. Lowering of grade on work in question;
5. Assigning grade of “F” to work in question;
6. Assigning grade of “F” for course;
7. Recommendation for more severe punishment.

If the faculty member determines that assigning a grade of “F” to the course is the appropriate penalty and this disciplinary action occurs prior to the deadline for dropping courses, the student forfeits his/her right to drop the course in question.

The faculty member may file a record of cases of academic dishonesty, including a description of the disciplinary action taken, along with any materials involved, with his or her college dean and the Office of Student Affairs. The office of the academic dean of the college in which the offense took place will maintain records of all cases of academic dishonesty reported for a period of not more than two years.

Any student who has been penalized for academic dishonesty has the right to appeal the judgment or the penalty assessed. The Appeals Procedure will be the same as that specified for grade appeals. The grade appeals procedure may be found in the University Rules manual.

XI. BIBLIOGRAPHY

XII. GRADE APPEALS
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
