I. Course Description
CNEP 6396, DOCTORAL INTERNSHIP, 3 semester hours. Provides for an intensive, supervised professional experience in an approved counseling setting. The internship consists of a total of 300 clock hours. Students will experience delivery of services and will be supervised while supervising other professionals. Prerequisite: CNEP 6395. Grade assigned will be “credit” (CR) or “no credit” (NC). Students repeat the internship for another 300 clock hours and another 3 semester hours of credit.

II. Rationale
Doctoral students are required to complete doctoral-level counseling internships that total a minimum of 600 clock hours. The 600 hours include supervised experiences in counselor education and supervision (e.g., clinical practice, research, teaching). The internship includes most of the activities of a regularly employed professional in the setting. The 600 hours may be allocated at the discretion of the doctoral advisor and the student on the basis of experience and training.

III. State Adopted Proficiencies for Teachers and/or Administrators/Counselors (NA)

IV. TExES Competencies (NA)

V. Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes (Standard in bold indicates outcome which is primarily met and measured in this class.)

A. CACREP standard II-B-2: Doctoral students develop collaborative relationships with program faculty in teaching, supervision, research, professional writing, and service to the profession and the public.

B. CACREP standard III-B: Doctoral students are required to complete doctoral-level counseling internships that total a minimum of 600 clock hours. The 600 hours include supervised experiences in counselor education and supervision (e.g., clinical practice, research, teaching). The internship includes most of the activities of a regularly employed professional in the setting. The 600 hours may be allocated at the discretion of the doctoral advisor and the student on the basis of experience and training.

C. CACREP standard IV-B-1: Doctoral students will demonstrate the application of theory and skills of clinical supervision.

D. CACREP standard IV-B-2: Doctoral students will develop and demonstrate a personal style of supervision.

E. CACREP standard IV-C-1: Doctoral students understand the major roles, responsibilities, and activities of counselor educators.

F. CACREP standard II-C-2: Doctoral students will know instructional theory and methods relevant to counselor education.
G. CACREP standard II-C-3: Doctoral students will understand ethical, legal, and multicultural issues associated with counselor preparation training.

H. CACREP standard IV-F-4: Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to develop and submit a program proposal for presentation at state, regional, or national counseling conferences.

I. CACREP standard IV-H-1: Doctoral students will demonstrate a personal theoretical counseling orientation that is based on a critical review of existing counseling theories.

J. CACREP standard IV-H-2: Doctoral students will demonstrate effective application of multiple counseling theories.

K. CACREP standard IV-H-3: Doctoral students will demonstrate an understanding of case conceptualization and effective interventions across diverse populations and settings.

L. CACREP standard IV-J-1: Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to provide leadership or contribute to leadership efforts of professional organizations and/or counseling programs.

M. CACREP standard IV-J-2: Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to advocate for the profession and its clientele.

The primary student learning outcome for this course includes the following:

Doctoral students will complete doctoral-level counseling internships that total a minimum of 600 clock hours. The 600 hours include supervised experiences in counselor education and supervision and will be documented through the doctoral internship log signed by both the site supervisor and the university instructor.

Additional student learning outcomes may include, depending on doctoral student emphases:

Doctoral students will demonstrate the application of theory and skills of clinical supervision as measured by the site supervisor mid-semester evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will develop and demonstrate a personal style of supervision as measured by the site supervisor mid-semester evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will know instructional theory and methods relevant to counselor education as measured by the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will understand ethical, legal, and multicultural issues associated with counselor preparation training as measured by the site supervisor mid-semester evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to develop and submit a program proposal
Doctoral students will demonstrate a personal theoretical counseling orientation that is based on a critical review of existing counseling theories as measured by the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will demonstrate effective application of multiple counseling theories as measured by the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will demonstrate an understanding of case conceptualization and effective interventions across diverse populations and settings theories as measured by the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to provide leadership or contribute to leadership efforts of professional organizations and/or counseling programs as measured on the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

Doctoral students will demonstrate the ability to advocate for the profession and its clientele as measured by the mid-semester site supervisor evaluation and the instructor final evaluation.

VI. Course Topics

The major topics to be considered are: Major topics and experiences will be counselor education, pedagogy, research, supervision, consultation, and training. Special topics may include social and cultural issues, social change and advocacy action planning, CACREP standards, school/clinical mental health/marriage and family counseling program development, professionalism, ethical dilemmas, legal issues, submission of program proposals, presentations at state and national conferences, and writing for publication.

VII. Instructional Methods and Activities

Methods and activities for instruction include field experiences, group, individual and/or triadic supervision:

A. Interns will obtain at least 300 hours of advanced professional experiences for each semester. This is inclusive of both supervision and field experience hours.

B. With approval of instructor, intern will secure a signed agreement with a site supervisor for 1 hour of weekly individual or triadic supervision of the internship experience (15 hours required to pass course).

C. Student will submit proposal describing individual internship goals for semester. Refer to leaning outcomes in V. Course Objectives/learning Outcomes. Proposal should be submitted with the site supervisor’s agreement form.

D. Students will come to class prepared, complete readings, and actively participate in supervision by contributing to agenda and discussing internship activities including issues in ethics, supervision, counseling, research, evaluation, pedagogy, and scholarship.
E. Interns will actively participate in an average of 1 1/2 hours of group supervision each week. Students will be responsible for bringing supervision concerns, topics, and questions for the agenda. Ethical and legal practices, social and cultural issues, social justice, and advocacy will be addressed as related to each topic (Minimum of 22 1/2 total hours of group supervision required to pass course).

F. Students will study 2009 CACREP standards and prepare to discuss issues, implications, and applications in class discussion.

G. Students will submit site supervisor evaluation at mid semester.

H. Students will submit updated Curriculum Vita suitable for a counselor educator (second internship).

J. As reflected on schedule, submit cumulative weekly logs (use instructor's form) of internship experiences including direct/indirect hours, group and individual/triadic supervision sessions.

K. Before scheduling individual evaluation appointment with professor during final exam week, submit paper reflecting on your internship experience. Describe, reflect, and evaluate your personal and professional growth for this semester and conclude with an overall summary of your field experience over the three semesters of practicum/internship.

L. Students will submit to instructor materials documenting internship activities such as proposals, reports, program development/evaluation, manuscripts, audio/video tapes, copies of documents, programs, reading list etc.

Attendance, participation, readings and other assignments are mandatory. Professor must be notified and approve of excused or unavoidable absences. CACREP internship supervision requirements must be met in order to pass the course. Incomplete grade requests are granted only in extraordinary circumstances and must be requested in advance by the student. All work will be submitted in APA format.

X. Textbook
In lieu of a single textbook, doctoral students are expected to complete readings related to internship goals and area of specialization. Readings may also be selected from bibliography below. Additional readings will be required for various class activities and field experiences as related to internship proposals.

XI. Bibliography

The knowledge bases that support course content and procedures include:

XII. Grade Appeals

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

XIII. Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Driftwood 101.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
In addition to advanced counseling practice, doctoral students may be working in the following areas during the doctoral practicum/internship semesters: professional leadership roles in counselor education and school counseling, supervision, consultation, teaching/training, research/evaluation, program development, technical competence. Areas of focus are identified in an individualized practicum/internship plan proposed by the student and approved by the university instructor. Please indicate Doctoral student's skill/performance levels in the following areas by circling the appropriate rating: (1) low, (2) fair, (3) good, (4) very good, (5) excellent, or (N/ A) not applicable. Narrative comments are requested on the last page of the evaluation.
