Text: Rock and Roll: Its History and Stylistic Development, 7/E
by Dr. Joe Stuessy, Texas State University – San Marcos, and Dr. Scott D. Lipscomb, University of Minnesota
Publisher: Prentice Hall Copyright: 2013

COURSE DESCRIPTION
A study of the elements of rock tracing the development and evolution of the styles and structures of rock, including sociological and political aspects of the idiom, from its beginning to the present time. General survey of composers, performers, and styles of rock and roll. Emphasis on understanding stylistic elements of music including rhythm, texture, form, and harmony.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES/COURSE OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify the origins and development of rock music from its inception to the present.
2. Compare the musical components of the rock idiom, including textural, rhythmic, stylistic, and lyric aspects.
3. Delineate social and political trends that are reflected through rock music.
4. Differentiate the diverse musical influences that are integrated into the various types and genres of rock.
5. Analyze the theatrical aspects of rock and identify those artists that have proven to be the major contributors to the evolution of the art form.

Grading: Grades will be calculated as follows:

- 9 Tests \( 75\% \) of final grade
  All nine tests are weighted equivalently.

- Attendance \( 25\% \) of final grade
  Attendance in a minimester course is essential to success. You simply cannot miss any classes. Class time is precious and an enormous amount of material will be covered in every session. Attend all classes and 25\% of your grade will be perfect.

Grading Scale:
A = 90-100
B = 80-89
C = 70-79
D = 60-69
F = 0-59

There will be NO MAKE-UP EXAMS OR QUIZZES. Failure to take an exam or quiz will result in a grade of 0 for that exam or quiz.
ATTENDANCE POLICY:
- You are allowed three absences from class for any reason. A student must be present for the majority of a class meeting to be counted as “present”.
- After the fourth absence (regardless of the reason), your final course grade will be lowered by one letter grade.
- After the fifth absence (regardless of the reason), you will receive a failing grade in the course.
- Arriving late or leaving early from class counts as ½ an absence.

ADVISING STATEMENT
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College’s Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at 361.825.5816 in Driftwood 101. If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at 361.825.5816.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal.
A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. If the problem cannot be resolved at this level, the student may take the steps below.

1. Presentation of grievance to instructor. (This step must be taken within fourteen calendar days after the beginning of the next term.)
2. Appeal to department chair or area coordinator.
3. Written appeal to the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
4. Preliminary review and advising by an ombudsman appointed by the Provost.
5. Submission of file by department chair to the chair of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
6. Review of file by committee chair and submission of case to committee.
7. Proceedings of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee. (Committee holds hearing, reviews data, presents findings to all parties, and makes recommendation to Provost.)
8. Decision by Provost.
9. Final appeal in writing to the Provost if student or instructor thinks appropriate procedures have not been followed.

For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Website at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.htm. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
