Course Description
This course is an introduction to contemporary ethical theories and their application to a number of practical issues. We will begin with an overview of ethics and discuss the nature of critical reasoning. Next we will examine several major ethical theories. These theories will provide us with a critical basis for exploring a number of current ethical problems and debates. After several weeks of discussing ethical theory and critical reasoning, the class will divide into smaller groups and investigate and evaluate various practical ethical issues.

Course Organization
Class meetings are divided into two types: (1) lectures and (2) discussion section meetings. The lectures will be given by Prof. Glenn Tiller in CI 113 and will follow the weekly schedule listed below. Just before spring break and continuing until the end of term, the large lectures will end and students will meet in smaller groups with a recitation leader to investigate and discuss applied ethical issues.

Student Learning Outcomes
Students taking the course will be expected to: (1) demonstrate (on test questions) an understanding of a variety of ethical theories and principles; (2) apply those theories and principles to professional ethics issues, in essays, papers, and case study analyses; (3) develop their reasoning skills, and demonstrate that development on test questions; (4) construct and evaluate ethical arguments in papers and essays.

Graded Assignments
1. Test 1. 10% of overall grade. General test consisting of some combination of true/false, multiple choice, short and long answer questions. It will cover all materials up to and including February 2 and will take the entire period to write.

2. Test 2. 20% of overall grade. General test consisting of some combination of true/false, multiple choice, short and long answer questions. It will cover all materials up to and including March 1 and will take the entire period to write.

3. Final Exam. Worth 20% of final mark. The exam will involve a critical analysis of a given case study in ethics.

4. Recitation Section. Worth 50% of final mark. Assignment will vary with individual recitation sections. Typical assignments include research projects, group presentations, and written assignments.

Grading Scale
All grades will be assigned on the standard scale: 90%-100%=A, 80%-89%=B, 70%-79%=C, 60%-69%=D, 59% and below=F. Each student’s assignments will be graded by her/his discussion section instructor.

Missed Test Policy
Students unable to write a test for a good (e.g. medical) reason must provide a doctor’s note. Make-up tests will be written at an arranged time under my supervision.

Attendance
All material discussed in lectures and covered in the readings are the potential basis for quiz and test questions: and some material will be discussed only in lecture. Students are therefore expected to attend all lectures and keep up with assigned readings. If you don’t attend class, don’t expect to pass.

Some Advice
The material we’ll be studying is difficult. Be prepared to work hard. In order to get a good grade in the class, I recommend the following. (1) Do all the readings more than once. (2) Don’t miss lectures. (3) Raise questions in class and/or drop by my office for a chat if you’re having difficulties. (4) Review the material regularly. (5) Take advantage of the supplemental instruction.

Freedom of Speech and Classroom Etiquette

You are free to ask any question you please about the material. In many cases if you did not understand something, this is because it was not explained clearly to you, so you will be doing your colleagues and yourself a service if you request clarification. You are also free to argue for any ethical position you find compelling, as long as you provide reasons for your point of view. It is inevitable that during discussions individual points of view will differ. When they do, our reaction will always be to patiently listen to the reasons offered for a particular ethical conclusion and cooperatively evaluate those reasons.

E-etiquette

Turn off all cell phones before entering the classroom. If your cell phone rings during class, I will stop the lecture. Any student who disrupts a lecture by using a personal electronic device will be asked to leave.

Advisement

Academic advisors are available to assist students with course selection, degree plans, and other academic matters. Each college has an academic advising center, staffed by full-time, professional advisors. For the College of Liberal Arts the undergraduate advisor is Linda Miller (825-3466; linda.miller@tamucc.edu). The graduate advisor is Rachelle Stanley (825-5896; Rachelle.stanley@tamucc.edu). Both are located on the second floor of Driftwood. Students who have yet to declare a major are advised by the Academic Advising Transition Center. For more information please call (361) 825-5931 or log on to http://www.tamucc.edu/~aac.

Notice to Students with Disabilities

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you suspect that you may have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric disability, etc.), please contact the Services for Students with Disabilities Office, located in Driftwood 101, at 825-5816. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see me as soon as possible.

Grade Appeal Process
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. If the problem cannot be resolved at this level, the student may take the steps below.

1. Presentation of grievance to instructor. (This step must be taken within fourteen calendar days after the beginning of the next term.)
2. Appeal to department chair or area coordinator.
3. Written appeal to the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
4. Preliminary review and advising by an ombudsman appointed by the Provost.
5. Submission of file by department chair to the chair of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee.
6. Review of file by committee chair and submission of case to committee.
7. Proceedings of the University Academic Standards Grievance Committee. (Committee holds hearing, reviews data, presents findings to all parties, and makes recommendation to Provost.)
8. Decision by Provost.
9. Final appeal in writing to the Provost if student or instructor thinks appropriate procedures have not been followed.

For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at: http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.htm. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
