   1. Foundational Knowledge and Dispositions
   2. Instructional Strategies and Curriculum Materials
   3. Assessment, Diagnosis, and Evaluation
   4. Create a Literate Environment
   5. Professional Development

V. COURSE OBJECTIVES AND OUTCOMES
This course is designed to enable students to:

- Examine a current reading basal and identify each of the TExES competencies.
- Develop and implement lesson plans for reading instruction.
- Reflect on personal teaching and learning experiences.
- Conduct informal reading assessments.
- Utilize reading and writing strategies across the curriculum.
- Select and use a wide variety of children’s literature to use with elementary students.
- Develop a work ethic with regard to attendance, punctuality, and professionalism.

VI. COURSE TOPICS
The major topics to be considered are:

- The role of the teacher in creating a community of readers and writers in an elementary school classroom.
- The steps necessary for creating a classroom of learners who authentically engage in reading and writing for purposeful and meaningful communication.
- The process of assessing the development of readers and writers.
The goal of creating classrooms where children are allowed and encouraged to construct meaning, to generate ideas, and to shape the kinds of learning that will take place in their classroom.

VII. INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND ACTIVITIES
The class will consist of field-work, lecture, video, internet demonstrations, read-alouds, small group work, outside reading, class discussions, and library work.

B. Class Policies

Extra Credit

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Student Reading Council: Join and attend all three meetings for the semester and participate in community service projects.

$10.00 annual membership fee
Assignments: All papers must be word-processed, double-spaced, and spell-checked. Cite references where applicable, and follow APA guidelines in doing so.

Late Assignments: All papers and projects should be submitted on the date that they are due, and thus late assignments may not be accepted. Of course, there are some events in life that may cause a delay in work products; this will be taken into consideration on an individual basis.

Electronic Devices: The use of all electronic devices is not allowed during class time. All phones are to be turned off. Students are not to text or receive text messages during class time. Computers are allowed only for academic purposes. Students who use computers to text, surf the Internet, check email, etc. will be asked to turn off their computers.

Grading Policy: The evaluation and grading of coursework is taken very seriously. In order to provide constructive feedback, papers are read more than once and written comments are included before a grade is assigned. It may take a little longer to read and return your work.

GROUND RULES FOR DISCUSSIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Statement of Civility: Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the university, city, state, and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation, or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated. http://sga.tamucc.edu/elections.html

2. Academic Honesty: University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) 3. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see me as soon as possible. Please have your accommodation letter from Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Disability Services (DS) Office with you when you come see me. If you suspect that you may have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric, disability, etc.), please contact the Disability Services Office (located in Driftwood 101) at 825-5816.

4. Grade Appeals: As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Website at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
