ART OF THE UNITED STATES

Required Texts:

Course Description:

The catalogue describes this course as follows: “A survey of the major developments in the art of North America from Pre-Columbian times to the modern era.”

This course surveys the traditions of North American Indian Art and then provides a survey of the major developments in American art from the Colonial period to the modern era.

Student Learning Outcomes:

The goals of the course are to make students aware of the history of the art of the United States. The outcomes of the course will include the development of critical thinking skills through the examination of the numerous social and political forces that coalesced to create the different types of art produced during the history of the United States, prior to that time, by its indigenous peoples.

1. Students will gain an understanding of the history of the art of the United States through readings, class participation and attendance in lectures. This knowledge will be measured by test performance and quality of in class reaction papers.

2. Students will write a response paper which will measure their understanding of a number of the complex issues addressed in the history of art of the United States.
Grading:

Your grade will be based upon:
1. Class attendance and participation (10%)
2. Two exams (40 %)
3. Final Examination (20%)
4. One typewritten paper (30 %)

1. The class attendance and participation grade will be based upon attendance in class, your contributions to class discussion, and the completion of assigned reaction papers. The reaction papers will consist of one to two page responses to movies shown in class, comparison and contrast assignments, and presentations made by guest speakers. In addition, some assignments may be made that relate to the text. These response papers should be submitted after class via Blackboard 8.

Additional opportunities for extra credit assignments related to local talks and exhibitions will also be presented from time to time through out the semester.

Attendance in class is VERY IMPORTANT since a great deal of visual material is shown in class that is not in the textbook. You will be tested over this material on examinations. More than TWO absences will result in the lowering of your grade by one letter grade. Additional absences will result in the lowering of your grade by another letter grade. Two tardies, leaving during class or leaving early will also result in the lowering of your grade by another letter grade in the course.

2. & 3. Exams will consist of slide identifications with comparisons done in essay form. You must identify the works at the top of the page and then discuss them in well organized paragraphs with complete sentences. The essays should broadly encompass the ideas about the different artists, their works of art, the movements that they participated in, and the issues pertaining to Art of the United States. Blue books will not be required for these examinations.

Images on disk will be put on reserve in the Media Services area of the Bell Library for study purposes prior to the examinations. Whereas it is not required that you study these images, it is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that you do so, as they will help narrow the focus to a representative number of the images covered in class. In addition, review of the images will help to reinforce the visual learning that needs to take place in this class in order to prepare you to be a practicing artist in the future.

Other helpful hints for doing well on tests in this course: I encourage students to form study groups, as I find that learning is reinforced through the sharing of class notes, readings from the text and other outside readings that are brought to group study sessions. I also recommend that you review your class notes on a weekly basis, as this will help you to commit the information to memory. This means you need to be taking notes! Over the years I have found that grades are higher for students who are actively engaged in note taking during class.
The papers of 800-1500 words each must be typewritten using a double-spaced format. The paper must also contain footnotes and a bibliography that follow the attached guidelines. Paper topics must be pre-approved by me no later than July 16th.

Grading Scale:

Your final grade for the course will be generated utilizing the four components listed under “Grading” in the percentages indicated.

1. 100-90 point average=A
2. 89-80 point average=B
3. 79-70 point average=C
4. 69-60 point average=D
5. 59-0 point average=F

Attendance Policy:

Attendance in class is VERY IMPORTANT since a great deal of visual material is shown in class that is not in the textbook. You will be tested over this material on examinations. More than THREE excused absences will result in the lowering of your grade by one letter grade. Additional absences will result in the lowering of your grade by another letter grade. Three tardies, leaving during class or leaving early will also result in the lowering of your grade by another letter grade in the course.

Cell phones and laptops:

Cell phones and laptops are not permitted in my class. Be sure that you turn off your cell phone prior to coming to class. You are not permitted to text during class or leave class to talk on your cell phone. I will confiscate the cell phone of any student caught using their cell phone during class and will return it at my discretion. You need to concentrate on the images on the screen, so please do not bring your laptop. I have noticed that students on laptops do not ever look up at the screen. This lack of engagement will have a negative impact on your learning in this class.

ACADEMIC ADVISING: The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College's Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in ( ).

Dropping a Class

I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. ( ) is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.

Classroom/professional behavior

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Statement of Civility (can be in place of classroom/professional behavior)

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost.

Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Statement of Academic Continuity*

In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.

NOTE: A great deal of material is covered in this class. It is recommended that the students begin studying the first day of class. This course cannot be passed through last minute studying alone. It is recommended that you do the readings as scheduled and that you begin reviewing the images on your own as soon as possible.

The following is a tentative schedule. It may vary somewhat during the course of the semester, but the readings should be done on time to keep the student up with the course requirements.

Here are some of the things that you will want to think about when writing your analysis. You do not have to answer all of the questions in each paper. These questions are included here to give you suggestions on how to think about art:

1. Give basic facts about the work:
   - What is the title?
   - When was the work done?
   - Where was the work done?
   - What medium was used?
   - What is the work’s size?

2. What is the subject of the work?

3. What is the purpose of the work?

4. What is the content of the work (what is the artist’s message)?

5. What period or movement does the work belong to?

6. What choices did the artist make concerning the formal elements and principles of design?

7. What does the work of art tell us about the cultural group who made it?

8. What is your response to the piece? How did the artist’s formal choice affect your response?

9. Where and how does the work fit into the history of art?

10. Did the artist use sources—either religious, historical or visual?

11. What do important scholars say about this work?

12. What is the work’s relationship to the worldview at the time it was created: religion, politics, economics, science, mathematics, psychology, sociology and so?

13. How does the work compare to earlier works or to works being done at the time?

14. What was the process of the piece?
15. What is the significance of the piece?

16. Is the work symbolic?

“The story behind a (work of art) transcends the work’s aesthetic qualities and offers a redemptive message, which may be the fundamental significance of art. It’s about us and our neighbors and humankind as a whole, a reflection of where we’ve been and where we’re heading, who we are and how we relate to this world. It’s about love and hate and desire and greed, about sensuality and tolerance and hope and faith. Joy, rage, compassion, contempt, boldness, conviction and courage—art is all these things, and more.

Art is about life, and ultimately the stories behind it are not art stories but human stories.”
