
Course Description: This course is an online, in-depth study of the art of public speaking and the tools employed by the speaker to build his/her craft. Basic public speaking techniques and terminology will be emphasized.

Students are responsible for recording and uploading their speeches to a cloud based video platform such as YouTube, Vimeo, etc and posting the links to these speeches to Blackboard in order to receive a grade.

Student Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this course, students who conscientiously perform their work will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
2. Demonstrate critical thinking skills through creativity, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
3. Demonstrate the ability to work effectively as part of a team by considering different points of view and/or showing support of a shared purpose or goal.
4. Demonstrate understanding of personal responsibility by connecting choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision making.

COURSE GRADE CALCULATION

1. Online Discussions (100 points): Each Unit will require students to post a reply to a specific discussion forum. For each assignment, students will (a) post a thoughtful, relevant, and astute response to the provided discussion prompt and (b) reply to the posts of three other students. All discussion posts are due by the respective Unit Deadline. No late posts will be accepted.

2. Reading Quizzes (100 points): Reading quizzes will be assigned during the semester for Units II, III, and IV (Personal, Informative, and Persuasive Speech Units). Each reading quiz will cover several chapters of text! All reading quizzes are due by the respective Unit Deadline. No late quizzes will be accepted.

3. Mini Speeches (100 points): Mini Speeches are 1-5 minute practice speeches that students must upload to the appropriate discussion board by the assigned deadline. Mini Speeches will take place during Units II, III, and IV. Students must (a) record their mini speech on the webcam, (b) upload the speech to YouTube, (c) post the YouTube link to the appropriate discussion board, and (d) comment on the mini speeches of three other students.
4. Exams (200): Two exams (100 points each) will be given during the semester and will be equally weighted. Format of the exam will be multiple choice, and will cover the key terms and concepts discussed in the text book slides and Connect Lucas access site. Students are responsible for reading the text and keeping up with the reading assignments through the semester, as reading quizzes will be also calculated in to the final grade.

5. Graded Major Speeches (Personal, Informative & Persuasive): Students will deliver three major graded speeches during the semester:

ALL MAJOR SPEECHES WILL REQUIRE A VISUAL MEDIA ACCOMPANIMENT. You will need to arrange a place to present each of these speeches so that the camera captures your PowerPoint or Prezi slides. In addition to the quality of your speech attributing to your speech grade, you must provide a quality presentation which will contribute to the overall score.

ALL SPEECHES WILL REQUIRE AN OUTLINE AND BIBLIOGRAPHY (The outline and bibliography must be turned in as attachments to your discussion thread when you post your speech video.

Here are the steps for your graded speeches:

1. Prepare your speech and visual aids (Power Point, Prezi, etc.)
2. PRACTICE YOUR SPEECH AND THE RECORDING!
3. Record your speech and make sure your visual aids are VISIBLE!
4. Upload your speech to YouTube
5. Post the YouTube link to the appropriate discussion forum for major speeches.
6. Attach your bibliography and speech outline to the same discussion forum.
7. Comment on the speech videos of THREE other students in the class.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: The course material of this online course is fast-paced and condensed - and it is imperative that you log in, complete your assignments on time, and do not get behind. A speech schedule will be set at the beginning of the semester and adhered to throughout the duration of the course. Late and/ or make up speeches will not be accepted online unless you have a documented excuse or a doctor’s note. Speeches not submitted by the deadline will result in a ZERO and you will not pass the class.

Academic Honesty: Students unaware of the university’s statement on academic honesty should review it in the Undergraduate Catalog or Student Handbook. Examples of academic dishonesty and plagiarism are using someone else’s ideas and not giving them credit; presenting a paper that is not originally yours; handing in assignments that are not originally yours; presenting facts or lifting ideas from sources without crediting the source; presenting falsified opinions and figures; and cheating on an exam. If you are uncertain as to what actions constitute plagiarism or dishonesty, please ask your professor. Students who violate the code of honesty in this class will receive a “0” on the assignment. Any student receiving more than one “0” for academic dishonesty or plagiarism will fail the course and may be expelled. Note: All violations of academic dishonesty are reported to the college dean and the Office of Student Affairs who maintains documentation of such offenses for at least 5 years.

Notice to Students with Disabilities: Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities.
