Course Topics

Course Format and Instructional Framework

Your successful completion of this course will rely upon a variety of learning activities. In this distance education course, you will function both as an independent, self-directed learner as well as a team member who learns collaboratively. You will learn about the best practices and original ideas of experts and will generate your own ideas as they relate to your teaching practice. Viewing, listening, reading, discussing, writing, and reflecting are the essential, mutually reinforcing learning activities of this course and degree program, and they are the tools that will help you be successful in a distance learning environment. In addition, the timely, individualized, and substantive feedback you receive from your Faculty Member will reinforce and refine your learning as you move through the course.

The course consists of 7 weeks, each containing activities and assignments designed to increase understanding of a given topic or topics. These activities and assignments should be completed in sequence, as the course content is progressive. For more information on the instructional delivery model, please visit:

www.tamucc.edu/distancelearning. Refer to the Getting Started link.

Each week includes some of all of the following elements:

Introduction

Each week begins with an Introduction that presents an overview of content to be addressed and establishes the context for the new knowledge.

Learning Objectives

The Learning Objectives articulate the knowledge and/or skills you will demonstrate in completing the weekly assignments. They are related to the conceptual framework, professional standards, and expected program outcomes.

Learning Resources

The Learning Resources present new knowledge and skills on the topic(s) covered each week. The Learning Resources will inform Learning Resources include:

Required Readings

Required Readings provide support, research, and information related to the topic(s) of the week. You will be expected to demonstrate your understanding of the concepts and ideas in the Required Readings in your weekly assignments.

Media

Media segments and multimedia components provide new knowledge and demonstrate skills related to the content of each week. Most weeks feature one or more media segments that may include interviews with contributing scholars and practitioners as well as demonstrations of best practices. The title of each media segment and a brief overview of its content are provided.

Optional Resources

In addition to the required course material, optional resources are also suggested. Although these readings are not required, you are encouraged to explore them to further your learning, and/or to incorporate them into any of your assignments.

Discussions (as required and necessary)

The Discussion will provide you with an opportunity to interact in small groups as you exchange thoughts and points of view about the weekly topics, as well as about your educational experiences in general. Together you will brainstorm ideas, pose questions about the media segments and/or the Required Readings, discuss your practice of new skills and strategies, and support and respectfully challenge one another in your application of new knowledge. Although you may find that you and your colleagues frequently agree on particular issues, remember that optimal learning will result from examining various points of view. Feel free to pose an alternative idea, or present a contrasting viewpoint in the interest of a thorough and dynamic discussion.

Each Discussion consists of the following:

- Introductory information to be considered prior to making your initial Discussion posting
- A Discussion activity, in which you are asked to interact with the members of your group to brainstorm ideas, practice using new skills and strategies, and begin applying your knowledge. For online Discussions, candidates will be directed to:
  - Post their thoughts/insights/ideas for their colleagues to consider
  - Read a sampling of their colleagues’ postings
  - Respond to a designated number of postings
  - Return to their initial posting and reflect on their colleagues’ responses and their own learning

Application (as required and necessary)

The Application Assignment is an opportunity for you to transfer new knowledge and skills to an authentic context relevant to your own teaching situation. Each Application Assignment requires independent reflection, analysis, synthesis, and personalization of the concepts and strategies presented during the week.
Suggested assignment lengths are provided for the Application Assignments. Note: These page lengths do not include (if applicable) the cover page, reference list, and appendices.

Unless otherwise noted, Application Assignments must follow American Psychological Association (APA) guidelines. Please refer to the Pocket Guide to APA Style.

Reflective Essay (as required and necessary)

A Reflective Essay will provide you with an opportunity to review, synthesize, and evaluate distinct concepts as they have affected your practice. Your work should reflect knowledge gained through the media segments, the readings, Discussions with your colleagues, Application Assignments, and personal experience.

A suggested assignment length is provided for the Reflective Essay. Note: This page length does not include (if applicable) the cover page, reference list, and appendices.

Unless otherwise noted, the Reflective Essay must follow American Psychological Association (APA) guidelines. Please refer to the Pocket Guide to APA Style.

Instructional Methods and Activities

EDUC 4605, 4608/002 utilizes a variety of traditional instructional methods and activities, as well as field-based experiences:

A. Traditional Experiences (lecture/discussion; demonstration; drill; guest speaker; on-line deliveries; video, etc)

B. Clinical Experiences (simulations; cooperative groups; student demonstrations or presentations; guided discovery; role play; lab exercise; value clarifications)

C. Field Experiences (field base teaching; field trips; community resource use)

VIII. Assignments

All assignments will be critically evaluated for correct spelling and grammar.

As a professional educator, you must model clear and correct writing at all times. Proofread, and may I suggest have someone else proofread, all assignments prior to turning them in to be graded.
All assignments need to be typed, double-spaced, 12-pt font

(Unless otherwise specified)

1. (4) TExES PPR Quizzes (400 points)
   PPR Exams will be given after Domain I: Designing Instruction (Competencies 1-4); Domain II: Creating a Positive, Productive Classroom Environment (Competencies 5-6); Domain III: Implementing Effective, Responsive Instruction & Assessment (Competencies 7-10); and Domain IV: Professional Roles & Responsibilities (Competencies 11-13). A study guide will be posted on Blackboard at least 48 hours prior to the test.

2. Teaching Lessons (500 points) (Video Lesson 1@ 50pts.; Lesson plans and Reflections, 4@ 100 pts. (*see below for details) You will be expected to teach at least FIVE lessons in your assigned classroom this semester.

   All lesson plans must be discussed with Dr. TD and/or your clinical teacher AS WELL AS E-MAILED TO THEM prior to the day the lesson(s) is taught. ALL lessons must integrate the use of technology (e.g., E-Tech lesson (Dr. Elwood; power point, United Streaming video, AlphaSmarts, etc.). Evidence of the implementation of technology must be provided with the packet for grading.
LESSON PLAN SUBMISSION GUIDELINES & PROTOCOL:

ALL 5 LESSONS ARE TO BE SENT TO BOTH YOUR CT AND SITE PROFESSOR FOR REVIEW AND FEEDBACK VIA E-MAIL

Below is a description of the lessons and how each lesson will be evaluated:

For a lesson that will be taught on a Tuesday, the draft is due to the site professor AND CT by 5:00 pm on Saturday preceding the teaching event via Blackboard (e-mail or hardcopy to CT). For a lesson that will be taught on a Thursday, the draft is due to the site professor AND CT by 5:00 pm on Monday preceding the teaching event via Blackboard (e-mail or hardcopy to CT)

Save each lesson as a “.doc” file with the filename CT1(or whatever lesson it is)+last name+your first initial. For example, Yolanda Ruiz first lesson would be saved as such: “CT1RuizY” (without the quotation marks)

Rationale: The reason for submitting the lessons early is so that the professor and the CT have an opportunity to provide you with feedback on your lesson as necessary and appropriate. Remember to discuss ALL lesson ideas with your CT PRIOR to beginning the writing and developing of your lesson. In other words, it should be approved by the CT first! 😊

- The first lesson that you teach will be videotaped. Due by ____see calendar. You will personally critique the video tape of the lesson and turn in the lesson plan along with a reflection analysis (see “Video Tape Self – Evaluation) of your lesson all at one time, stapled together on the Tuesday or Thursday after you taught the lesson. (You will be provided the guidelines, “Video Tape Self-Evaluation”). Lesson Plan and Reflection- 100pts.

- Two lessons (CT1 and CT2) will be observed and critiqued by your clinical teacher. Provide your CT a copy of the evaluation form (in your Field Base Packet purchased from bookstore) she/he will use to evaluate your lesson AND a final draft of your lesson plan at least one day before your lesson is taught. Your first lesson evaluation is due ____see calendar. Your second lesson evaluation is due ____see calendar. Please turn in your lesson plan, the evaluation form completed by the clinical teacher, and your reflection all at one time, stapled together on the day of your post conference with me*

*POST CONFERENCING is REQUIRED after EACH LESSON – 5 POST CONFERENCES). BE SURE TO E-MAIL ME OR LET ME KNOW WHEN YOU WILL BE POST CONFERENCING AFTER EACH LESSON IS TAUGHT.
Two lessons will be observed and evaluated by Dr. Tejeda-Delgado (TD1 & TD2). Your first lesson observation is due __ see calendar. Your second lesson observation is due __ see calendar. Please turn in your lesson plan, the evaluation form completed by the clinical teacher, and your reflection all at one time, stapled together on the day of your post conference with me.*

IMPORTANT PROTOCOL FOR TD1 & TD2:

1. YOU MUST CALENDAR YOUR TD (Tejeda-Delgado) LESSONS ON THE WHITE BOARD WITH DATE AND TIME OF LESSON—do this ASAP as it fills up fast!

2. MAKE SURE YOU HAVE PROVIDED COPIES OF LESSON PLAN VIA BLACKBOARD OR E-MAIL TO BOTH Dr. Tejeda-Delgado AND CT (see above submission deadlines)

3. HAVE THE "Pre-Service Teacher Observation Form" (the top section completed by PST) AND a FINAL draft of your lesson plan READY for me on the day of the observation placed in the area of your CT’s room where you would like me to sit when I go into observe TD1 and TD2 lessons.

4. Make sure to employ Higher Order Thinking questions in every lesson and have the students highly engaged.

NOT ADHERING TO THE ABOVE PROTOCOL CAN NEGATIVELY AFFECT PREPARATION GRADE.

POST CONFERENCING PLUS – DELTA Chart self evaluation form: It is important to be a reflective practitioner, and examining the effectiveness of the lesson is an excellent way to improve those skills. The reflection should provide reaction to the questions provided in the self evaluation guidelines. Self-evaluations should include positive remarks as well as suggestions for improvement.

STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO SCHEDULE A POST CONFERENCE FOR THE TUESDAY OR THURSDAY AFTER EACH LESSON IS TAUGHT. THE “PLUS – DELTA Chart” WILL BE USED TO COMPLETE THE SELF EVALUATION OF LESSONS 2-5 (CT1, CT2, TD1, TD2). THE CHART CAN BE FOUND IN OUR BLACKBOARD COURSE. I ALSO HAVE HARDCOPIES IN OUR ZAVALA CLASSROOM.

IMPORTANT NOTE! You CANNOT teach your next lesson before having post-conferenced with Dr. TD on each lesson. 1 PAGE MAXIMUM!

You must score at least 35/50 points on each of the four evaluated lessons. It may be necessary for some students to teach more lessons. If the student does not meet the minimum 35 point criteria on four lessons, the student will not be recommended for student teaching.

3. Professionalism (Summative Assessment of Professional Attributes-Handbook) (500 pts)

- You will be evaluated on your professionalism in this field experience. This semester you will have many opportunities to develop professional skills and work habits. How you dress and present yourself will also affect this grade. No (visible) tattoos or texting allowed on campus premises. Phones should only be used for emergencies. The summative assessment handout will be provided to your CT and she/he will submit the form ONLY to me at the end of the semester.

- The average of the scores obtained from the formative evaluation by the Clinical Teacher and the Site Professor will be reflected by the following grades: (no rounding will occur)

Each student will sign in electronically at Montclair’s front office computer. In addition, students must keep an individualized attendance record (handout will be provided to you in class). Text or call me if you are going to be absent or late. MAKE SURE TO CALL YOUR CT FIRST! IF YOU CANNOT REACH YOUR CT, YOU SHOULD IMMEDIATELY CONTACT MONTCLAIR (361-994-3651) AND LEAVE A MESSAGE WITH MS. LINDA (SECRETARY) TO CONVEY YOUR MESSAGE TO YOUR CT – SHE WILL NOT ANSWER THE PHONE UNTIL AFTER 7:45AM. It’s always a good idea to obtain your CT’s contact information ASAP 😊

Students are expected to attend all class meetings. Time missed in your clinical teachers' classrooms must be made up (no exceptions). A doctor’s excuse may be required for any and all absences, but will not excuse the absence from having to be made up. Approved Absence means notification and/or approval of absence prior to 7:45 am on the date of the absence. Also see the Guidelines and Policies area for more detailed information about faculty and student guidelines for online courses, including student participation, faculty accessibility, faculty feedback, late assignments, and grades of Incomplete.

Course Requirements

The courses in this program are offered via distance learning using an established online course platform. Candidates must have access to the following:

- DVD player for home entertainment system or computer failure to complete one or more assignments may result in failing the course.

Classroom Access

Classroom access is strongly recommended for students enrolled in this teacher education degree program. Educators who do not have such access must find a student or group of students to work with when asked to apply their new knowledge and reflect on the results. Students without classroom access will not be given alternative assignments.

additional discussions that candidates may choose to begin.

Academic Honesty

Texas A&M University considers academic honesty to be essential for each student's intellectual development. As an institution fundamentally concerned with the free exchange of ideas, the university depends on the academic integrity of each of its members. In the spirit of this free exchange, students and faculty of Walden recognize the necessity and accept the responsibility for academic honesty. A student who enrolls at the University thereby agrees to respect and acknowledge the research and ideas of others in his or her work and to abide by those regulations governing work stipulated by the school or academic program and, in turn, the Faculty Member.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined as use of intellectual material produced by another person without acknowledging its source. You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Some infractions may include, but are not limited to the following:
• Wholesale copying of passages from works of others into an assignment, paper, Discussion forum posting, or thesis or dissertation without acknowledgment

• Using the views, opinions, or insights of another without acknowledgment

• Paraphrasing another person’s characteristic or original phraseology, metaphor, or other literary device without acknowledgment

Faculty Members monitor student work for evidence of plagiarism. In addition, the Office of Academic Affairs conducts periodic reviews of randomly selected samples of current student work for evidence of plagiarism.

Please note that your Instructor may require you to submit your work through Turnitin.com, which is a plagiarism prevention tool, prior to submitting assignments. You are strongly encouraged to review the Turnitin.com tutorial at http://www.turnitin.com/en_us/support/support-services

Candidates with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. The first calendar day of class is the official start date of the course as posted on your academic page.

II. Learner-Centered Schools for Texas:

State Adopted Proficiencies for Teachers

LEARNER-CENTERED KNOWLEDGE

The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.

The teacher exhibits a strong working knowledge of subject matter and enables students to better understand patterns of thinking specific to a discipline. The teacher stays abreast of current knowledge and practice within the content area, related disciplines, and technology; participates in professional development activities; and collaborates with other professionals. Moreover, the teacher contributes to the knowledge base and understands the pedagogy of the discipline.

As the teacher guides learners to construct knowledge through experiences, they learn about relationships among and within the central themes of various disciplines while also learning how to learn. Recognizing the dynamic nature of knowledge, the teacher selects and organizes topics so students make clear connections between what is taught in the classroom and what they experience outside the classroom. As students probe these relationships, the teacher encourages discussion in which both the teacher’s and the students’ opinions are valued. To further develop multiple perspectives, the teacher integrates other disciplines, learners’ interests, and technological resources so that learners consider the central themes of the subject matter from as many different cultural and intellectual viewpoints as possible.

LEARNER-CENTERED INSTRUCTION

To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identifies needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.

The teacher is a leader of a learner-centered community, in which an atmosphere of trust and openness produces a stimulating exchange of ideas and mutual respect. The teacher is a critical thinker and problem solver who plays a variety of roles when teaching. As a coach, the teacher observes, evaluates, and changes directions and strategies whenever necessary. As a facilitator, the teacher helps students link ideas in the content area to familiar ideas, to prior experiences, and to relevant problems. As a manager, the teacher effectively acquires, allocates, and conserves resources. By encouraging self-directed learning and by modeling respectful behavior, the teacher effectively manages the learning environment so that optimal learning occurs.

Assessment is used to guide the learner community. By using assessment as an integral part of instruction, the teacher responds to the needs of all learners. In addition, the teacher guides learners to develop personally meaningful forms of self-assessment.
The teacher selects materials, technology, activities, and space that are developmentally appropriate and designed to engage interest in learning. As a result, learners work independently and cooperatively in a positive and stimulating learning climate fueled by self-discipline and motivation.

Although the teacher has a vision for the destination of learning, students set individual goals and plan how to reach the destination. As a result, they take responsibility for their own learning, develop a sense of the importance of learning for understanding, and begin to understand themselves as learners. The teacher's plans integrate learning experiences and various forms of assessment that take into consideration the unique characteristics of the learner community. The teacher shares responsibility for the results of this process with all members of the learning community.

Together, learners and teachers take risks in trying out innovative ideas for learning. To facilitate learning, the teacher encourages various types of learners to shape their own learning through active engagement, manipulation, and examination of ideas and materials. Critical thinking, creativity, and problem solving spark further learning. Consequently, there is an appreciation of learning as a life-long process that builds a greater understanding of the world and a feeling of responsibility toward it.

EQUITY IN EXCELLENCE FOR ALL LEARNERS

The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.

The teacher not only respects and is sensitive to all learners but also encourages the use of all their skills and talents. As the facilitator of learning, the teacher models and encourages appreciation for students’ cultural heritage, unique endowments, learning styles, interests, and needs. The teacher also designs learning experiences that show consideration for these student characteristics.

Because the teacher views differences as opportunities for learning, cross-cultural experiences are an integral part of the learner-centered community. In addition, the teacher establishes a relationship between the curriculum and community cultures. While making this connection, the teacher and students explore attitudes that foster unity. As a result, the teacher creates an environment in which learners work cooperatively and purposefully using a variety of resources to understand themselves, their immediate community, and the global society in which they live.

LEARNER-CENTERED COMMUNICATION
While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.

As a leader, the teacher communicates the mission of the school with learners, professionals, families, and community members. With colleagues, the teacher works to create an environment in which taking risks, sharing new ideas, and innovative problem solving are supported and encouraged. With citizens, the teacher works to establish strong and positive ties between the school and the community.

Because the teacher is a compelling communicator, students begin to appreciate the importance of expressing their views clearly. The teacher uses verbal, nonverbal, and media techniques so that students explore ideas collaboratively, pose questions, and support one another in their learning. The teacher and students listen, speak, read, and write in a variety of contexts; give multimedia and artistic presentations; and use technology as a resource for building communication skills. The teacher incorporates techniques of inquiry that enable students to use different levels of thinking.

The teacher also communicates effectively as an advocate for each learner. The teacher is sensitive to concerns that affect learners and takes advantage of community strengths and resources for the learners’ welfare.

LEARNER-CENTERED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students’ success, demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain professional ethics and personal integrity.

As a learner, the teacher works within a framework of clearly defined professional goals to plan for and profit from a wide variety of relevant learning opportunities. The teacher develops an identity as a professional, interacts effectively with colleagues, and takes a role in setting standards for teacher accountability. In addition, the teacher uses technological and other resources to facilitate continual professional growth.

To strengthen the effectiveness and quality of teaching, the teacher actively engages in an exchange of ideas with colleagues, observes peers, and encourages feedback from learners to establish a successful learning community. As a member of a collaborative team, the teacher identifies and uses group processes to make decisions and solve problems.
The teacher exhibits the highest standard of professionalism and bases daily decisions on ethical principles. To support the needs of learners, the teacher knows and uses community resources, school services, and laws relating to teacher responsibilities and student rights. Through these activities, the teacher contributes to the improvement of comprehensive educational programs as well as programs within specific disciplines.
