B. Class Policies
1. SAND DOLLAR CARD IS MANDATORY. Forgetting your card is not an excuse to miss class. In an emergency, the front desk has a class roster and you will be allowed admittance twice each semester with photo I.D.

2. ATTENDANCE
   Students are expected to attend all classes. Students will sign in on an attendance roster at the beginning of each class. If you are unable to participate, but not ill, please attend class and observe. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MATERIAL COVERED REGARDLESS IF YOUR ABSENCE IS EXCUSED OR NOT. Students should review their calendar and contact their fellow classmates to find out what they missed. Please notify instructor of any special circumstances that might influence your performance or attendance in class. YOU WILL BE ALLOWED ONE ABSENCE WITHOUT POINT DEDUCTION. WITH THE SECOND ABSENCE THERE WILL BE A TWENTY (20) POINT DEDUCTION PER ABSENCE. Two absences can be made up with prior notification and approval of instructor (e.g. attending another yoga class, outside work, or additional student demonstration). A student will lose 20% of the points awarded for the assignment if the work is turned in after the deadline regardless of the excuse. If the assignment is not received the following day by 2:00 p.m. it will not be accepted and the student will receive a zero.

3. TARDINESS
   Due to the nature of yoga, arriving after class has started can result in serious injury. Arrive early enough to allow time to get your mat and props, be dressed, and signed in and in place to begin class on time. Anyone arriving more than five minutes late for class will need to see the instructor at the end of class before being allowed to sign the roster.

4. ACADEMIC HONESTY
   University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honest. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery or plagiarism. Please refer to Texas A&M university-Corpus Christi current catalog for information on all aspects of disciplinary action for academic misconduct and penalties.
5. QUIZZES
   The quizzes will be taken directly from a combination of the lectures, and material sheets. It is the student’s responsibility to obtain material sheets and attend the review. ABSOLUTELY NO MAKE-UP EXAMS WILL BE GIVEN UNLESS THE STUDENT HAS SECURED PRIOR PERMISSION FROM THE INSTRUCTOR AND/OR ACADEMIC DEAN.

6. FINAL PRACTICALS
   The final will consist of a physical demonstration of knowledge of Yoga Asana. The exact expectations of student performance will be covered and reviewed in class. IT IS THE STUDENT’S RESPONSIBILITY TO ATTEND ALL WORKSHOPS AND REVIEWS OF THIS MATERIAL. ABSOLUTELY NO MAKE-UP PRACTICALS WILL BE GIVEN UNLESS THE STUDENT HAS SECURED PRIOR PERMISSION FROM THE INSTRUCTOR AND/OR ACADEMIC DEAN.

7. CONDITIONS THAT AFFECT PARTICIPATION AND THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITY’S ACT (ADA)
   It is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor if you have a condition that may impair or influence full participation in this class. Also, if your condition is severe enough to require special modifications to course requirements students should contact the Students with Disabilities Office. The ADA is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disability. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, you MUST contact the Disability Services Office at (361)825-5816 or visit the office in Driftwood 101. Any accommodations needed are required to come through the DSO. The DSO will then contact your professor and set up necessary provisions. Do not seek accommodations directly from your professor because professors do not have the authority to make such decisions/modifications.

8. ATTIRE
   Dress in appropriate attire: comfortable clothing that will not restrict your movement. The instructor will need to observe your alignment so the clothes should be somewhat fitted. T-shirts, warm-up pants, shorts, leggings are all types of clothing that would be appropriate. NO SHOES ARE WORN DURING THE ACTUAL PRACTICE.

XI. Grade Appeals

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

XII. Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall (116).

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
