EVALUATION

Personal and group evaluation in a choral ensemble is immediate and constant throughout the rehearsal process. Your grade is based on your successful application and completion of the TAMUCC University Choirs Professional Standards, which are attached.

Evaluation is divided equally between:
1. Daily work in rehearsals - 33.33% (one-third)
2. Preparation of music as exhibited by examinations conducted in quartets and in the rehearsal process - 33.33% (one-third);
and
3. Quality of performances - 33.33% (one-third)

GRADING SCALE
A = 94-100
B = 87-93
C = 79-86
D = 71-78
F = 70 or below

Disabilities Accommodations: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall, Room 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Academic Advising: The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College’s Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

Grade Appeal Process. As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Classroom/Professional Behavior: Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.
Since this ensemble is one of the most visible representations of academic life at TAMUCC and is required to meet high musical standards, professionalism in rehearsal and performance is a responsibility of all singers. Failure to adhere to any of them will be grounds for permanent dismissal from the choral program.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS OF PREPARATION

All choir members are expected to spend some time outside of rehearsal working on choir music. By one week before the performance of a piece, you should be proficient enough on the music to be able to accurately sing words, pitches, rhythms, loud/soft dynamics, phrase shapes, and other musical details correctly, using proper vocal production, and with memorization on pieces specified by the conductor. This may involve “spot checks” in quartets, double quartets, or by yourself.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS OF REHEARSAL

1. Personal health is your responsibility. You should come to rehearsal capable of performing for the duration of the rehearsal. Rehearsals will include long periods of standing and may include some movement in warmups. Proper posture is expected at all times when you are singing.

2. You are expected to apply proper vocal production, balance, and blend of your voice as specified by the conductor.

3. Attendance at all rehearsals is MANDATORY. Absences will be excused solely at the discretion of the conductor and will not be automatic for any reason. All absences must be cleared BEFORE rehearsal unless you are incapacitated. Your grade will be lowered one letter grade for each unexcused absence. An unexcused absence from a performance will result in an F for the semester and dismissal from the choral program.

4. Don’t be late! You are expected to be in your place by the starting time for each rehearsal, and to be on time at call time before performance. Failure to do so will result in you being counted absent.

5. Positive attitude, respect and courtesy for leaders (including the conductor, accompanist, and section leaders) and your fellow singers is expected at all times. This includes avoidance of fragrances (perfumes, colognes, etc.) in the rehearsal environment. Deodorant, of course, is highly encouraged. 😊

6. You are expected to bring your music and a pencil to each rehearsal. For each piece of music we are performing this semester, you will be required to place these markings in your own music as instructed by the director. Musical instructions given out by the conductor are expected to be written in the music (with pencil!!) and recalled at all future rehearsals and performances of a given piece.

7. You will implement the conductor’s instructions to the best of your ability, including warmups, rehearsal of music, and stage demeanor.
8. Focus and concentration on improving the ensemble is expected. Any behavior which is not focused on rehearsing the music, and/or which distracts the conductor or singers from the music, is prohibited. THIS INCLUDES ANY USE OF CELL PHONES FOR ANY PURPOSE DURING REHEARSAL.

9. Questions or comments that do not pertain to the music being rehearsed, or are of a negative nature, are to be addressed to the conductor outside of rehearsal.

10. You should not audibly or visibly keep time or hum starting pitches during rehearsal or performance.

11. There will be no talking during rehearsal while leaders are giving directions.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS OF PERFORMANCE

1. You are expected to be on time for call time before performance. Any unexcused absence from a performance will result in an F grade for the semester and permanent dismissal from the choral program.

2. You are expected to professionally represent TAMUCC in all aspects of your contact with the audience and staff of our performances.

3. There will be no talking on stage during a performance, including entrance and exit from the stage area.

4. Consideration in every sense for fellow performers is essential. For example, scented hair sprays, perfumes, and colognes must be avoided at all times during performance.

5. A pleasant demeanor is expected on stage. You will pause to acknowledge applause in whatever way the conductor deems appropriate.

6. You are expected to display the good singing habits learned in rehearsal, such as posture, blend and balance.

7. You are expected to perform with the same level of focus, concentration, and musical “polish” expected of you in rehearsal.

8. Most importantly, you are expected to apply the professional standards of preparation so that the ensemble performs its best at every concert.
I agree to comply with the stipulations outlined in the syllabus as well as the Professional Standards of the TAMUCC Choral Ensembles as a condition of membership for the 2012-2013 academic year.
