The Art of the Theatre explores the origins, elements and ideas concerning theatre as it affects us today. This is accomplished through discussions of the text and plays to be read for class, an exploration into the creative processes associated with the production of plays and an examination the theatre through the imagination of both the theatre artist and audience. The class will also view and critique plays according to information provided in class.

Student Learning Objectives:
1. The student will learn an overview of the history of the Theatre and understand the historical, social, and cultural influences that inform it.
2. The student will learn the contributions of the playwright, the actor, the designers, and the audience into the creative process of the Theatre.
3. Having learned an overview of the history of the Theatre and the contributions of Theatre artists and management, the student will develop an informed, aesthetic response to Theatre as an art form.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to do their own work. To claim another's work as one's own constitutes Plagiarism. Plagiarism would be the taking of someone else's writing, creative projects, electronic media or other assignments and turning it in as your own. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Under university policy you can face severe consequences, which include probation or expulsion from the university. If you are found guilty of presenting someone else work as your own you will receive an F in the class and will be reported to the dean of students for further action.

POP QUIZZES/ASSIGNMENT
In lieu of taking attendance there will be ten pop quizzes/assignment during the course of the term. These tasks will be un-announced and you will have a limited time in which to complete the assignment. Regular on time attendance will ensure your ability to know about the assignments. The material covered in the quizzes will be the days reading assignment. Please refer to the schedule for more information. If you miss a pop quiz you will not be allowed to make it up. Only university sanctioned activities will exempt you from a pop quiz.

PLAY CRITIQUES
4 Total

The critiques consist of a short analysis of plays to be read in class and viewed by students. Each critique will have a set of objectives the student may follow. These objectives can be found by clicking on the title of the play. The link will take you to a guide for writing each critique for each play. Students will follow these guidelines for each critique. Students can follow their own direction with the approval of the instructor. Critiques are to be between 3-5 pages each. Please type your critique using double spacing and a 12 pt font. Plan accordingly as late papers are not accepted. You are responsible for seeing the productions which are to be critiqued.

All plays on campus are $5 and Musicals are $10. If this presents a financial hardship on you, please see me for an alternate assignment. You must let me know prior to the date of the play!!!
FINAL EXAM will be held on the scheduled day of the final exam. The final will be held on its scheduled day. Section 001 will be on Monday Dec 16, 2013 11 - 1:30pm. The final will not be a comprehensive test.

PLAYS TO SEE AND READ  Class will read and view live and recorded theatre as available. Additional plays may be viewed with instructor's approval. Play titles will be announced. Misc info

EQUITY STATEMENT: All persons, regardless of gender, age, class, race, religion, physical disability, sexual orientation, etc., shall have equal opportunity without harassment in this communication course. Any problems with or questions about harassment can be discussed confidentially with your instructor or with the department chair.

Academic Advising
The College of Arts and Humanities requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College’s Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

The American with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services Office at (361) 825-5816 or visit the office in Driftwood 101.

Grade Appeal Process. As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
