COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to be an actor training workshop specifically geared towards improving skills relating to the classical, Elizabethan, and Restoration time periods.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES: Through this course, students will be able to:
1. Develop skills for identifying and analyzing period styles in scripts/plays.
2. Develop and demonstrate the necessary actor tools for communicating period style to an audience/cast.
3. Identify and demonstrate the inner psychology of a character in relation to the time period in which they lived with specific emphasis on status.
4. Develop and demonstrate a working knowledge of formal verse language.
5. Apply the principles of actor-prep (analysis, rehearsal, performance) to the process of period acting.

COURSE GUIDELINES:
1. Clothing:
   Regular dress for daily class work will include appropriate clothing in which you can move; leotards, tights, sweats, t-shirts, or similar clothing with elastic/drawstring waists and footwear: soled shoes for men and character shoes for women. Do not appear for class in restrictive clothing that will prevent you from fully participating (extremely tight or short clothes, flip flops, spiked heels, etc...) You will be asked to leave to change clothes—and then you will be late. No hats or other head covering under any circumstances—until appropriate scene work begins.

   It is recommended that you begin shopping/accumulating the following for use throughout the semester. Check out Goodwill, thrift stores, etc...be creative in your pursuit of cheap solutions. Maybe even treat a costumer to dinner if they’d be willing to help you in this endeavor.
MEN:
1: A button-down shirt—long sleeved
1: tie
1: scarf
1: handkerchief
1: hat with brim (a ball cap won’t work)
1: A dress jacket/blazer/tux coat—something similar
1: vest (nothing too loose)
1 pair: Hard soled shoes—that tie
1 pair: Formal dress-type pants—not blue jeans

WOMEN:
1: Corset (a bustier from Victoria’s Secret, or something similar, will do)
1: fan
1: Long (to-the-floor) rehearsal skirt with a fairly full circumference (easy to make if you own or have access to a sewing machine/costumer.) You may also check out a black rehearsal skirt for the semester from the instructor.
1: handkerchief—the lacier the better
1 pair: white gloves (they don’t actually have to be white, but they shouldn’t be winter gloves meant for warmth, but thin gloves in which you can still maneuver.)
1 pair: Character shoes or shoes with sturdy heels

2. Recommended: bring water to each class session—but no other food or drinks.
3. Bring your binder/journal/handouts/textbook with pencil to every class meeting.
4. Be respectful. Bodies and abilities are different and will vary from person to person.
5. Due dates will be strictly observed. Assignments are due even if you are absent. If you know you will miss a class, it is your responsibility to turn your work in early. There will be no make-up work unless you have a verified medical emergency.
6. Students must keep duplicate copies of all work submitted.
7. It is the responsibility of each student to let the instructor know of any injury or illness that could in any way impact him/her in classes or in performance. Doctor’s documentation may be asked for verification.
8. Your participation in all discussion and exercises is necessary to the success of the class and to your personal growth.
9. Technology. This is a participation-oriented class. There will be no need for laptops unless you are giving a presentation. Please keep all technology stored and put safely away.
10. Cell phones. Please leave them in a stored/off position for the duration of the semester.
11. Web Access. Students must have a TAMUCC e-mail account and access to the Web. Students should check their email daily and check the Blackboard site at least twice a week, 24-hours before each class meeting.

GRADED EXCERCISES:
A. Reading assignments/Quizzes and Guided Group Discussion/Presentations (30 %) You will be required to read handouts, book chapters, and articles. Each of you may be assigned a portion of the reading to present during the class discussion phase of each unit of focus. You are encouraged to think outside the book/box and comb the library shelves, surf the internet, etc...for further dramaturgical information to bring to the class discussion. Further details will be provided, but you should make use of instructor office hours. Your instructor (and her library) can be a guide for you to ensure ease of presentation and discussion. Use her!
BLUMENFELD Text Presentations: You will be provided instructions for various projects related to certain chapters in the Blumenfeld textbook.

B. Participation in class discussions (20 %) Active participation in class exercises and activities will lead to improved vocal production.

C. Scene Showing/Class Performances (30 %) Reminder—real stage acting is impossible without line memorization—and line memorization is the one of the first jobs of the actor. It is the instructor’s recommendation that all students be completely memorized prior to your first rehearsal—so that scene exploration can begin sooner rather than later. In class, if you’re not memorized, you may not perform.

D. Character Analyses/Biographies (15%) A detailed character analysis/biography will be due on the class day BEFORE you present your scene: typed and double spaced. IF YOU DO NOT SUBMIT A CHARACTER ANALYSIS, YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PERFORM. You may use a GOTE sheet, Uta Hagen’s 6-steps, or a combination of various analyses formats that work for you. A quality character analysis would include the GOTE/Hagen format at a minimum—and might also include journal entries, character dreams/ambitions, sketches, given circumstances, etc... There are samples of assorted formats on Blackboard. Help yourself!

E. Final Examination. (5%)

PREPAREDNESS:
Unprepared students will be given no credit for the assignment.

YOU MAY NOT SUBMIT PAPERS TO THE INSTRUCTOR VIA EMAIL. A written, typed copy of your work is due on the due date—in class, in person. If you are absent, find someone to deliver it for you OR turn your work in early. Problem solving a finicky printer by expecting the instructor to print your work for you will only result in a zero.

GRADING SCALE: The final course grade will be based on the student’s earned percentage of total points available. 90-100% = A 80-89% = B 70-79% = C 60-69% = D 0-59% = F

ATTENDANCE
Attendance in this course is critical to your success. For purposes of grading, no distinction will be made between excused and unexcused absences (excluding absences for recognized religious holidays, death in your family, doctor’s excuse with documentation, and approved university functions.) Your absence affects the progress of the entire class. Each absence in excess of two will lower your average a full letter grade. More than four absences will result in a failing grade for the course. Exceptions under extreme circumstances may be made at the discretion of the instructor. You must consult with the instructor immediately to make such an exception viable.

Being on time: means being in the space ready to work, dressed appropriately, and mentally focused at 2:30 p.m.

Lateness: Three late arrivals constitute one absence. If you arrive more than ten minutes late you will be considered absent. Time management skills are one of the most significant tools of the profession. The practice and development of these skills is expected.

Missed Assignments: No make-up work for quizzes or missed in-class activities. Assignments are due on the assigned deadlines and will not be accepted late. An unexcused absence on the date of an assigned performance will result in a failing grade for that activity. (Exceptions to deadlines will only be made in extreme circumstances at the discretion of the instructor.)
SAFE ZONE AND PERSONAL SPACE

It may be necessary for your instructor or fellow classmates to make physical contact with you to determine breathing, muscle tension, alignment, or perhaps in the form of interactive role play or scene blocking. If this ever makes you feel uncomfortable, please let the instructor know immediately.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Any student found guilty of academic dishonesty, such as plagiarism or cheating will receive an “F” for the assignment, and, if the situation warrants it, for the entire course.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you suspect that you may have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric disability, etc.), please contact the Services for Students with Disabilities Office, located in Driftwood 101, at 825-5816. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see me as soon as possible.

ACADEMIC ADVISING: The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College’s Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS: As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.
