Course Description
This is an intermediate course for students well founded in the basics of drawing. Students will engage in a rigorous exploration of form and space. Students will encounter and discuss sophisticated issues inherent to the practice of drawing.
Prerequisite: Arts 1316.

Textbook
In lieu of a textbook, students will be given assigned readings.

Learning Outcomes
- Students will engage in a rigorous investigation of seeing.
- Students will become responsible for a disciplined exploration of drawing outside of class.
- Students will practice constructive-criticism and become independently capable of participating in critique.
- Students will work from still life, the figure, interior space, exterior space and abstract space.
- Students will draw with proper posture.
- Students will investigate the history and application of perspective.
- Students will investigate the history and application of abstract space.
- Students will research and transcribe a master painting or drawing.
- Students will experiment with drawing tools, drawing surfaces, mark making, composition, form and space.
- Students will produce and present a final project.
- Students will produce a final digital portfolio.

Attendance Policy
Attendance and punctuality are mandatory for this class. If you anticipate missing four classes or more, for any reason at all, I urge you to reschedule this class. Your final grade will be lowered if you miss more than 3 classes. On your 4th absence, your grade will be lowered by one letter grade. On your 5th absence your grade will be lowered by two letter grades. If you miss six classes, you will fail this course. If you are tardy to class three times, this counts as one missed class. If you leave before the end of the class three times, this counts as one missed class. If you miss class, you should contact your professor as soon as possible to find out what you missed. Excuses, etc are not necessary and not encouraged.

Lockers
See Art Office to reserve a locker in the hallway.

Academic Honesty
Student handbook: students who violate academic integrity and regulations by plagiarism, other academic dishonesty or disruptive behavior will be held accountable by faculty and may have their grades adjusted accordingly.

Grading and Evaluation
- In-Class Assignments: 25% (This includes in-class motivation, preparation, participation and attitude.)
- Homework: 25% (Sketchbook)
- Final Digital Portfolio: 25%
- Final Critiques: 25% (You must keep all in-class work and homework from the entire semester. A portion of this work will be presented during Final Critique. This grade reflects your participation and attitude during Final Critique.)

Note: Final Critique usually takes two class periods. You must attend both class periods, even if you are not presenting your work. If you are absent during Final Critique, you will not pass this course.

Course Conduct
I expect students to be kind and respectful. Mean or bullying behavior or language will not be tolerated. Homophobic, racist, sexist or hateful language of any kind will not be tolerated. Please turn your phones off during class time. Please leave the studio cleaner than you found it.

Disabilities Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
ACADEMIC ADVISING: The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College’s Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

GRADE APPEALS PROCESS: Students who feel that they have not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in this class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details on the process of submitting a formal grade appeal, please visit the College of Liberal Arts website, cla.tamucc.edu/students/studentinfo.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Associate Dean.
