- Two tardies = one absence

Neglecting to arrive to class adequately prepared will also constitute as tardiness/absent. This means not having materials or preliminary drawings, or incomplete assignments/tasks.
Student Handbook: Students who are representing the University in an official capacity (i.e. athletes, Student Government Association) will be excused, but must make up all missed work. Students with these circumstances must make every attempt to save the three allotted absences for these obligations. If you anticipate missing four or more classes, you are urged to reschedule.

DEMONSTRATIONS:
Demonstrations are scheduled throughout the semester and demand full attention and good note taking. Impromptu demonstrations, assignments and quizzes will be given as the opportunities arise. Scheduled demos will not be repeated for tardy, absent, or negligent students.

CRITIQUES
Critiques are crucial to the development of ideas, problem solving skills, and utilizing the language of constructive criticism. Students are required to fully participate in these exercises. Prints must meet the instructor’s required level of completion to be considered. All work must be clean, flat, and readily presentable.

PORTFOLIOS/CRAFTSMANSHIP:
Printed Editions must be clean and flat – submitted for each grade between interleaving in a presentable portfolio.

SAFETY/CLEAN-UP:
STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO CLEAN UP AFTER THEMSELVES AT THE END OF EACH WORK SESSION. Materials are not to be left out during student absence. Continued negligence will affect the final grade. Be considerate and respectful of the studio space, Professor Gere, and fellow classmates. Individuals engaging in uncooperative and/or unsafe behavior will be cautioned and instructed once by the instructor. Upon second violation, the student will be withdrawn from the course and given a "wd" with no refund of tuition or fees. All tools on loan must be returned at the end of the semester.
