COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Freshman Writing Program at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi and English 1302—Composition II promote:

- Writing across disciplines to enhance critical thinking and learning
• Reading and writing as acts that shape and are shaped by social, political, and historical conditions
• Computer-mediated environment for effective research and revision

English 1302-Composition II is a computer-mediated writing course that links reading, analysis, research, and writing to refine college-level composition skills. Those skills include choosing an appropriate topic for research, thorough exploration of source materials, working toward an individual informed position, effective use of rhetoric, substantive revision, and competent editing/proofreading. The course introduces documentation styles required in academic writing and methods of primary and secondary research necessary to develop a series of analytic position papers.

Student Learning Outcomes: ENGL 1302-Composition II

• Apply principles of the writing process, including drafting, editing, and revision, to generate academic/professional documents
• Identify position, claims, and evidence in arguments
• Evaluate position, claims, and evidence in arguments
• Construct arguments on more than one side of an issue using sources and evidence
• Produce an introduction with a solid focus, direction, and purpose
• Cohesively integrate academic research to support the writer's purpose
• Integrate a citation system that is identifiable, functional, and consistent
• Connect ideas across disciplines

English 1302 will be a de-centered class in which I will ask you to actively participate by sharing your ideas, leading class discussions, and making group presentations. All work in English 1302-Composition II must be computer-generated, edited, and revised - handwritten work will not be accepted.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

• Produce three portfolios
• Participate in online class assignments
• Participate in assigned group activities

Grade Appeals Process: Students who feel that they have not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in this class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details on the process of submitting a formal grade appeal, please visit the College of Liberal Arts website, cla.tamucc.edu/students/studentinfo.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Associate Dean.

PORTFOLIOS - - You will assemble three portfolios that provide evidence of different types of learning. Items in the portfolios will demonstrate your active participation in class activities and assignments. Detailed instructions will be posted on Blackboard for each portfolio.

Portfolio 1: Annotated Bibliography-15 sources (final part due 2/23/15-MW or 2/24/15-TR); Portfolio 2: Argument paper, source evaluations, outline, peer review, final draft (due 3/30/15-MW or 3/31/15-TR); Portfolio 3: Visual Argument, PowerPoint presentation, expanded reflective overview, works cited (presentations begin 4/22/15-MW or 4/23/15-TR).

Evaluation: Your final grade in English 1302 will be based on the quality of your active participation in group activities, research, revision, assessment, and your ability to evaluate evidence and argue from an informed position. Any concerns about your grade should be addressed to me first. If your concerns are not satisfactorily resolved you may take them to the Director of the Writing Program, Dr. Susan Wolff Murphy, FC 127, ext. 2640.

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted unless you have conferenced with me about your reasons and have negotiated another due date. Grades will be lowered at the discretion of the instructor for late work.

PARTICIPATION - - DAILY WORK (online, class, group discussions—in-class writings)

Participation is a large portion of your grade and will reflect attendance, preparation, and ACTIVE engagement. Daily work cannot be made up if you miss class. In this course, the assignments include what you DO as you move along a continuum of processes that include:

- Thinking about your reasons for writing - - What is my purpose?
- Designing a series of goals/tasks in planning your research - - What do I want to know? How and where will I find it?
- Inventing - - How do I discover, develop, and organize my ideas?
- Drafting, peer reviewing, revising - - What suggestions contribute to accomplishing my specific goals?
- Researching - -information literacy - - your ability to find and use electronic and traditional research tools for your projects
- Reflecting - - your personal perspective on your topic conveyed to your audience in third person
- Documenting - - being aware of various documentation styles APA, MLA, etc. and using them

Writing is driven by a sequence of actions/processes, like those mentioned above, leading to the written part of the project.

POLICIES

Attendance: English 1302 uses a workshop model of instruction, which means that you must be present to participate in writing exercises, group discussions, computer-mediated activities, peer review, etc. Class attendance and participation are essential, as much of your time will be spent doing group work. Participation in these activities is part of your grade. After three absences, your final course grade will be lowered at the discretion of the instructor. YOU
ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING UP WORK THAT YOU MISS DUE TO AN ABSENCE. An absence does not release a student from scheduled due dates for assigned work.

DROPPING A CLASS: Should dropping the class be necessary, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. November 7, 2014 is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.

PLAGIARISM: Consult the current TAMUCC Catalog under headings, "Academic Integrity" and "Academic Honesty." The University defines plagiarism as "the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work." This refers not only to texts, periodicals, and journals, but also to Internet sources. Plagiarism is a serious academic matter with serious consequences.

DO NOT TALK when the instructor is talking or another student is making a contribution to the class. This is disruptive and prevents other students from hearing what is being said. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Such a breach will seriously affect your participation grade (25% of your course grade).

MUTE cell phones and/or beepers before entering this classroom. COMPUTER GAMES and TEXTING are inappropriate in the classroom—these distractions will affect your participation grade.

KEEP FOOD OR DRINKS in your backpack to avoid possible damage to computer lab equipment.

PRINTING HARD COPIES—printers are located in hallway; you will need your SAND DOLLAR card to pay for printing.

CLASSROOM DIALOGUE AND COMMUNITY STANDARDS

Our class is a learning community in which we will all take turns speaking and listening with courtesy and respect. There will be many opportunities for debate over issues about which we feel strongly and may disagree. Dissent is good for challenging and revising perspectives, but it should be expressed in democratic fashion, whether face-to-face or online. Once a message is posted online, it becomes public and the same standards of discussion etiquette or netiquette apply. Your audience is a diverse demographic community with its own standards of acceptable speech and language in the college classroom context.

In other than discussions, raise your hand to make a contribution or ask a question.

ACCOMODATIONS NOTICE

Students with Disabilities and Veterans
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in CCH 116 and 119.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

ACADEMIC ADVISING
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College's Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.

CASA (Center for Academic Student Achievement)
CASA, a tutoring and learning Center, provides free tutoring to any student interested in improving their writing abilities. Tutors will assist you with all aspects of writing. The Center’s purpose is not to correct or to proofread your drafts, but to help you learn strategies that good writers use during the processes of writing. You may visit the center for assistance with a writing project for any of your classes. The Center is located in the Glasscock Bldg.
