I. COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES
The Symphonic Winds is the premier wind ensemble in the Department of Music and is comprised of the finest wind musicians at the university. Its repertoire includes contemporary and traditional works composed for the medium. The highest levels of artistic performance and musicianship are emphasized through the performance of the most respected wind literature available, as well as through innovative concert programming. The ensemble members gain valuable musical experiences and a heightened artistic sensitivity that enable them to achieve their professional goals.

Acquired skills include: ability to discern correct intonation in a large-group setting, refinement of rhythmic accuracy, ability to make quality musical judgments and form musical opinions, and improved physical dexterity through the performance of complex music. Students achieve these goals through meticulous rehearsal preparation and Socratic questioning from the instructor. The Symphonic Winds performs three on-campus concerts in the fall semester.

II. REQUIRED MATERIALS
Students must have the following materials at every rehearsal:
1. Instrument(s)
2. Assigned music
3. Accessories (mutes, mallets, etc.)
4. Pencil

Rehearsal schedules are posted at the beginning of the week. All students should acquaint themselves with the schedule to be prepared for each day. Failure to have all required materials at rehearsal may result in dismissal for the day and loss of letter grade. Rehearsal schedules will be posted on the band board and in Blackboard at the beginning of each week. Review the schedule so you are optimally prepared for every rehearsal. Rehearsal assessments will also be posted on Blackboard so you will know what areas need the most work.

All music and folders are the property of Texas A & M University-Corpus Christi. Any damage or loss is the financial responsibility of the student. Transcript and registration holds will be placed on student accounts until all university materials and equipment are replaced or returned.

IV. GRADING POLICY
Grading: Each student will begin the semester with the grade of A. It is possible for that grade to be lowered for the following reasons:
1. Unexcused Rehearsal Absence. Each unexcused rehearsal absence will result in the lowering of the grade by one letter. An absence is defined as arriving to rehearsal more than 30 minutes past the start of the scheduled class time.

   - 0 Absences  A
   - 1 Absence  B
   - 2 Absences  C
   - 3 Absences  D
   - 4 Absences  F

2. Excused Absence. Members will only be excused if: 1. an official Absence Request Form is submitted at least 24 hours prior to the date of the absence; and 2. a competent substitute is sent for the missed rehearsal. Failure to provide a substitute may result in an unexcused absence. The ONLY excused absences are for the following:
   1. Personal Illness: Requires a written doctor's excuse required.
   2. Death/funeral/major surgery/family emergency in the immediate family, with every effort made to contact the instructors in advance.

   While it is sometimes necessary to miss a rehearsal due to an emergency, Symphonic Winds is a performance-oriented class, and grades are based primarily on your participation. Excessive absences by any member – even excused – diminishes the quality of the ensemble and may result in the lowering of the letter grade and/or removal from the group. Every member of the ensemble plays an important role in the success of the band, and you must use your best judgment regarding your attendance.

3. Performance Absence. One unexcused performance absence will result in an automatic failing semester grade and removal from the ensemble.

4. Late Arrival to Rehearsal. Two unexcused tardies to rehearsal (entering rehearsal more than one minute after the official start time) are equivalent to one unexcused absence. Students should arrive at rehearsal warmed up and ready to perform, or early enough to be able to do so themselves. Rehearsal warm-ups are designed to establish ensemble sound and intonation NOT to warm up each individual.

   In order to be excused from a rehearsal, or in cases where you need to arrive late or leave early, a student must fill out an Absence Request Form found on the ensemble webpage cla.tamucc.edu/music/pages/ensembles.html. The form must be received at least 24 hours prior to the request date and should be submitted as far in advance as possible. In cases of emergency, when you may not be able to get to a computer, the form must be submitted within 48 hours of the absence. Work – including with local high school bands – is not excusable. Requesting an absence does not guarantee approval. Verbal requests are not accepted.

5. Participation
   Positive participation is expected of all members. Students who talk during instruction, arrive at rehearsal unprepared, and act rudely detract from the positive atmosphere necessary of effective learning. Disruptive students exhibiting these or similar behaviors may be dismissed from rehearsal and will receive an unexcused absence for that day.

6. Cell Phone Policy
   Symphonic Winds has a zero tolerance policy regarding cell phone use during class. If you are caught using your phone for any reason during rehearsal, you will be sent out of rehearsal and immediately removed from the ensemble. If there is an emergency and you must use your phone, excuse yourself from the room to do so. Someone who is found to be leaving the room more often than is acceptable by the director will receive one verbal or written warning. Further such activity will result in removal from the ensemble.
V. CONCERT ETIQUETTE AND DRESS CODE
Concerts are important events as they represent the culmination of much hard work by many different people. It is important that members of the ensemble respect these performances through their behavior on the stage or in the audience. The expectations for band members are:

1. There will be a minimum of talking between pieces. There will be no talking and little motion between parts of a multi-movement work.
2. After a piece has ended, look to the podium for instruction. Do not touch your music or start working on your instrument. As the audience has listened to the band attentively, so we will acknowledge their applause.
3. Stay engaged during performance. Do not look around the stage or allow your mind to wander. Listen to the music around you when you are not playing because you are always performing.
4. Assume there is always someone important watching you. Act accordingly.

Dress Code
The dress code policy is designed so all players look professional and uniform. It is expected that all members will adhere to the code. Those found in violation of the code will be dismissed from the concert and be subject to the consequences as outlined in the syllabus.

VI. UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one's own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in failure of the class.

Dropping a Class
Events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. November 7 is the last day you can drop a class and receive an automatic grade of “W” this term.

Classroom/professional behavior
Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor's ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Statement of Civility
Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Grade Appeals
As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean's office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost.

Disabilities Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.
If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Statement of Academic Continuity
In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email as much as is possible. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.
