I. Course Description: This is an undergraduate diagnostic reading course. This course is an introduction to various formal and informal means to assess the reading strengths and weaknesses of children. Students will have the opportunity to apply a variety of reading assessment strategies and develop an instructional plan for young children. You will work one-on-one with a student for 8 weeks. During this time you will administer several informal diagnostic reading tests and plan a reading program to assist the student.

II. Rationale: This course is an advanced course that presumes undergraduates have had some introductory reading experiences/courses. Students will learn various assessment techniques that can be applied in the classroom with individual students or with groups of students.

III. Statement of Academic Continuity: In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.

IV. State Adopted Proficiencies and Competencies
State Adopted Proficiencies - The state-adopted proficiencies covered in this course include the following:
1. The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.
2. To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identifies needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.
3. The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.
4. While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.
5. The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students' success demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain professional ethics and personal integrity.

V. TExES Competencies

Generalist, EC-6
Standard I. Oral Language: Teachers of young students understand the importance of oral language, know the developmental processes of oral language, and provide a variety of instructional opportunities for young students to develop listening and speaking skills.
Standard II. Phonological and Phonemic Awareness: Teachers of young students understand the components of phonological and phonemic awareness and utilize a variety of approaches to help young students develop this awareness and its relationship to written language.

Standard III. Alphabetic Principle: Teachers of young students understand the importance of the alphabetic principle to reading English, know the elements of the alphabetic principle, and provide instruction that helps students understand that printed words consist of graphic representations that relate to the sounds of spoken language in conventional and intentional ways.

Standard IV. Literacy Development and Practice: Teachers of young students understand that literacy develops over time and progresses from emergent to proficient stages. Teachers use a variety of contexts to support the development of young students’ literacy.

Standard V. Word Analysis and Decoding: Teachers understand the importance of word analysis and decoding to reading and provide many opportunities for students to improve word analysis and decoding abilities.

Standard VI. Reading Fluency: Teachers understand the importance of fluency to reading comprehension and provide many opportunities for students to improve reading fluency.

Standard VII. Reading Comprehension: Teachers understand the importance of reading for understanding, know the components of comprehension, and teach young students strategies for improving comprehension.

Standard VIII. Development of Written Communication: Teachers understand that writing to communicate is a developmental process and provide instruction that helps young students develop competence in written communication.

Standard IX. Writing Conventions: Teachers understand how young students use writing conventions and how to help students develop those conventions.

Standard X. Assessment and Instruction of Developing Literacy: Teachers understand the basic principles of assessment and use a variety of literacy assessment practices to plan and implement literacy instruction for young students.

Standard XI. Research and Inquiry Skills: Teachers understand the importance of study and inquiry skills as tools for learning and promote students’ development in applying study and inquiry skills.

Standard XII. Viewing and Representing: Teachers understand how to interpret, analyze, evaluate, and produce visual images and messages in various media and to provide students with opportunities to develop skills in this area.

English Language Arts 4-8

Standard I. Oral Language: Teachers of students in grades 4–8 understand the importance of oral language, know the developmental processes of oral language, and provide a variety of instructional opportunities for students to develop listening and speaking skills.

Standard II. Foundations of Reading: Teachers of students in grades 4–8 understand the foundations of reading and early literacy development.

Standard III. Word Analysis Skills and Reading Fluency: Teachers understand the importance of word analysis skills (including decoding, blending, structural analysis, sight word vocabulary) and reading fluency and provide many opportunities for students to practice and improve their word analysis skills and reading fluency.

Standard IV. Reading Comprehension: Teachers understand the importance of reading for understanding, know the components of comprehension, and teach students strategies for improving their comprehension.

Standard V. Written Language: Teachers understand that writing is a developmental process and provide instruction that helps students develop competence in written communication.

Standard VI. Study and Inquiry Skills: Teachers understand the importance of study and inquiry skills as tools for learning and promote students’ development in applying study and inquiry skills.
Standard VII. Viewing and Representing: Teachers understand how to interpret, analyze, evaluate, and produce visual images and messages in various media and to provide students with opportunities to develop skills in this area.

Standard VIII. Assessment of Developing Literacy: Teachers understand the basic principles of assessment and use a variety of literacy assessment practices to plan and implement instruction.

English Language Arts 8-12

Standard I. English language arts teachers in grades 8–12 know how to design and implement instruction that is appropriate for each student, that reflects knowledge of the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS), that integrates all components of the English language arts (i.e., writing, reading, listening/speaking, viewing/representing), and that is based on continuous assessment.

Standard II. English language arts teachers in grades 8–12 understand the processes of reading and teach students to apply these processes.

Special Education EC-12

Standard IV. The special education teacher understands and applies knowledge of the characteristics and needs of individuals with disabilities.

Standard V. The special education teacher understands formal and informal assessment procedures and knows how to evaluate student competencies to make instructional decisions.

Standard VI. The special education teacher understands and applies knowledge of procedures for planning instruction and managing teaching and learning environments.

Standard XI. The special education teacher promotes students’ performance in English language arts and reading.

VI. Course Objectives: The student will be able to:
1. Demonstrate knowledge of appropriate corrective techniques,
2. Demonstrate knowledge of informal techniques to assess reading ability,
3. Adapt reading approaches and materials to meet the needs of the individual student, and
4. Develop an appropriate dynamic instructional literacy plan for a young child.

VII. Course Topics
The major topics to be considered are:
1. Causes of Reading Disabilities,
2. Individual Assessment Instruments and Procedures,
3. Interpreting Reading and Writing Assessments,
4. Designing Appropriate Instruction Based on Assessment, and
5. Relate Appropriate TEKS to Assessment Finds.

VIII. Instructional Methods and Activities: Methods and activities for instruction include:
1. Traditional Experiences (lecture, discussion, demonstration), and
2. Clinical Experiences (simulations, cooperative groups, student demonstrations and presentations, and experience working with elementary learners).

IX. Evaluation and Grade Assignment

Course Requirements

A. Case Study Portfolio and Oral Report: You will work with one child with reading problems. You will administer informal assessments and provide instruction based on the results of your assessments. The results of your work with this one child will be summarized in a case study. It is expected that your work be well written, word-processed, spell-checked and grammatically correct. Points will be taken off if there are errors in mechanics, usage, grammar, or spelling. (230 points). See appendix or assignment on BlackBoard for detailed instructions and grading rubric.

NOTE: This is the benchmark assignment for this course. You must achieve a minimum score of 180 points on the case study in order to pass this course.

B. Class Attendance, Activities and Participation: Students are expected to attend class and be punctual. Students should come to each class prepared to discuss assigned readings and make contributions to the class/group discussions. Twenty (20) points will be deducted for each absence during the class sessions before and after the tutoring period. Responses to class topics will be submitted at the end of each class period. (40 points).

C. Bag of Books: You will put together a bag of books to use the first day of tutoring. You need to look for books that cover the different genres and different reading levels. Your bag must consist of 12 books. You should turn in a book list that includes the title of each book, the author, publisher, date of publication and a brief description of each book (120 points). See appendix or assignment on BlackBoard for detailed instructions.

D. Textbook Responses: You will respond to questions about textbook chapters the day each chapter is assigned for the class. The responses will be written and discussed in class at the beginning of each class session. Textbook responses will not be accepted after the date they are discussed in class. (25 points)

E. Student Reading Profile: You will prepare a preliminary report on your assessment findings on the Student Reading Profile. Your scores and examples of student performance will be turned in at the end of the first week of tutoring. (50 points) See appendix or assignment on BlackBoard for profile form.

F. Cadre comments. You will participate in specific cadre discussions at the end of each tutoring session. You will submit a written response to the cadre topic before you leave the class. Cadre responses will NOT be accepted after they are due. (40 points). See assignment on Blackboard for cadre topics.

G. Quizzes: You will have two quizzes during the semester; these will cover course readings and lecture notes. Quizzes will be taken on BlackBoard and will be open for at least two days. You will not be permitted to take a quiz after the time period has closed (40 points). See Quizzes section on BlackBoard page.

H. Tutoring sessions: You will have 8 tutoring sessions with a student. You are required to be present for all tutoring sessions. If you can't make it you must ask a classmate to take your student for that day. If you do not make up that missed day you will not receive credit for that tutoring session. You will lose 50 points for each absence. So make sure you get cell phone numbers and any other information you need from your classmates.

a. You will prepare a “Tutoring Plan” for each day you assess and instruct students. The plan may be handwritten. All plans will be turned in with the final case study.

b. You will develop hands-on activities based on children’s literature and other authentic texts for the student you tutor.
See appendix or study guide on BlackBoard for tutoring plan format and suggestions.

I. Final Exam: You will have a comprehensive final exam covering content covered in this course.

Grade Assignment
Grades will be assigned according to the professional level of the final submissions.
A = Excellent-All work is 100% completed in a professional manner and contains evidence of significant effort and accomplishment. The work is 100% professional in content and appearance.
B = Good-All work is completed in a useful manner and contains evidence of effort and accomplishment. The work is complete in content and appearance but lacks professional polish.
C = Average-The work is complete. The work contains all required parts. The work lacks evidence of time and effort.
D = Passing-The work is not adequate in details, efforts, professionalism, or completeness.
F = Failing-The work is inadequate or incomplete.

Points
A. Class participation responses 40 points
B. Chapter responses 25 points
C. Cadre responses 40 points

Attendance/tardiness
Attendance will be recorded for this class. Points will be deducted for class absences. Notification of an absence does not constitute a class waiver.

Late work and Make-up Exams
Full credit will not be given for late assignments. There can be no extensions for the final case study.

Extra Credit
Extra credit is not an option for this course.

Cell Phone/Electronic Device Usage
Cell phones and other electronic devices should not be used during class. If a potential emergency exists where a student is expecting an important call concerning a child or family member, the phone should be put on vibrate.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism.
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in a level of discipline appropriate to the misconduct. This may include a requirement to re-do work in question; requirement to submit additional work; lowering of grade on work in question; assigning grade of ‘F’ to work in question; assigning grade of ‘F’ for course; recommendation for more severe punishment, such as suspension or dismissal from the University. The procedure for Academic Misconduct cases is posted on BlackBoard.

Learning and teaching take place in an atmosphere of intellectual freedom and openness. All members of the academic community are responsible for supporting freedom and openness through rigorous personal standards of honesty and fairness. Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty undermine the very purpose of the university and diminish the value of an education.

Plagiarism is wholly unacceptable and, for the purposes of this course, is defined as using in part or in whole any material written or designed by someone other than the student, unless specific credit is given to the person or resource material used. This includes, but is not limited to: lesson plans found on the Internet and/or provided by classroom teachers, or found in any form of publication (e.g., books, magazines, Internet sites), book descriptions/reviews, course work done by previous students (or any other current or TAMU-CC student). Appropriate citation of resources is required.

Dropping a Class
I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. June 19, 2015, is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term. However – because we begin working with children on June 15th, if you must withdraw, do it before June 12, 2015.

Preferred methods of scholarly citations
Scholarly paper organization and citations must follow the Association of American Psychologists Style Manual, 6th Edition. (See required textbook.)

Classroom/professional behavior

Grade Appeals*
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Disabilities Accommodations*
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in CCH 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Office of Veteran’s Affairs for assistance at (361) 825-2331.

READ 3351 Bag of Books Rubric

The Bag of Books is an informal introductory assessment. Your bag must contain at least 12 books. Books should cover ALL grade levels and MANY genres and MANY topics.

The Bag of Books is used at the first meeting with the student. You CANNOT assume anything based on the student’s age or grade. You may have a struggling reader, or you may have a student reading above level. You will not know beforehand what the student’s interests are.

You will turn in an annotated LIST of the books in your Bag of Books.
