Advanced Photography (Digital)

Course Description:
This class is designated for Art majors who have taken Arts 2356, Photo I, Digital Photography. Students work in a Digital Art Lab and will develop new skills in photographic manipulation software, scanning, use of digital cameras as well as in presentation: Matting, Framing, Installation, or Mixed Media. This is a studio class in which the student, in collaboration with the professor, pursues personal expression in their work for the semester. Participation in class critiques of assignments, discussions, presentations, and any scheduled field trips and outside lectures is required. In-class discussions will allow students to exchange historical and contemporary information. Class time will provide the opportunity to discuss technical problems and to explore conceptual directions.

This course requires a large measure of self-motivation and focus on the part of the student. Students will have much work time during class but should expect to spend an equal or greater amount of time outside of class completing projects. This course is designed for advanced photography students with basic knowledge of camera functions including aperture, shutter speed, and various lenses.

Learning Outcomes:
• Students will enhance their technical knowledge in photography by learning advanced techniques in photo manipulation through completing specific assignments.
• Students will extend their personal vision by researching photographs and techniques used by historical and contemporary photographers.
• Students will present their historical and contemporary research in a powerpoint presentation.
• Students will complete work that is ready for professional presentation.

Course Requirements and Grading:
1. CRITIQUES - Satisfactory completion of scheduled assignments and presentations on time.
2. ATTENDANCE & CLASS PARTICIPATION - Students are expected to punctually attend EVERY class and share knowledge, ideas, and reactions with other students and professor. This constitutes the Participation and professionalism part of your grade. On a student’s 4th absence you loose 10% - or, one letter grade, on a student’s 5th absence you loose 20% - or two letter grades. When you miss the 6th class, you fail. THREE late arrivals to class will count as one unexcused absence. If a class is missed for any reason, a make-up exercise will be determined by the professor. I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, YOU must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class.
A Statement about computer use, ipad use and phone use: There will be no use of Facebook, email, other social media websites and the internet in general during class. If you will be working on something relevant to the class, you will notify the professor of this use. You may not leave class for a phone call. You may use the computer for note taking.

3. EQUIPMENT - Safe and Proper use of the equipment and darkroom by students enrolled in the class for this class. No others may use the darkroom, cameras or printers.

The Photography Darkroom and Alternative Processes lab is for the use of students enrolled in Art 3365, 4365, 5306 and 5316 and may only be used during your assigned class time and the posted lab hours. Any exceptions to this rule, such as students working on a BFA, MA or MFA exhibition, will be cleared by Barbra Riley.

Because art studios use materials and tools that could be dangerous, safe and cooperative behavior by students is absolutely necessary. The studio course instructor will be the ultimate judge of cooperative as well as safe and unsafe behavior.
Individuals engaging in uncooperative and/or unsafe behavior will be cautioned and instructed once by the instructor. If a second occasion of uncooperative and/or unsafe behavior occurs, that student will be un-enrolled from the course and given a “wd” with no refund of tuition and fees.
