Course Description

This graduate studio course explores the foundations of publication and editorial design to inform students design vocabulary. Notable designers will be studied to better understand present day publication design. Students will create magazine, newspaper, and collateral designs, which reflect good design practices within the field of publication and editorial design.

Student Learning Outcomes

• The student will demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental visual communication theories as related to publication design.

• The student will demonstrate a proficiency of publication design through theory and practice of using grids, working with color palettes, type styles, images, and multiple formats.

Required Texts

Art Direction and Editorial Design
by Yolanda Zappaterra

Making and Breaking the Grid
by Timothy Smara

Required Materials

1. Portable Hard Drive (recommended).
2. Dropbox Account (free)

Email

You are required to use your University email address. You can always forward this address to one that you check on a more regular basis.

• Please consider e-mail as official correspondence and be sure to keep copies of e-mails that are sent and received for records purposes.

• Efforts will be made to address your e-mail within 48 hours. If you do not receive an email within 48 hours, please send a follow-up email.

• E-mail communications should be about class business.

• Please use the subject line in a way that indicates the content of the message. Please also use professional language and include your full name and a complete inquiry in the body of the message. Unprofessional emails will result in non-response.

How will I grade?

Each project will be graded on three factors:
1) discussions, critiques, and other class participation;
2) your creative process; and 3) the final artifact.

Please see last page of this syllabus to see the projects you will be completing this semester.
Grading Scale

Attendance
Attendance is mandatory for your success, will be recorded during each class session and is considered as part of the professionalism element of your final grade.
• You will lose a single letter grade on your fourth (4) absence.
• Five (5) absences will result in the drop of another letter grade.
• Six (6) absences will result in the failure of the course.
• Three (3) late arrivals or early departures will result in the recording of one (1) full absence.
• Students are required to attend class for the duration of the scheduled time or until the Professor dismisses the class.
• Attending critiques are mandatory.

Late Work
No late work is accepted. If you are unable to make the final critique of a project, please make arrangements with me to turn in and present to the class on an earlier date.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism of concept, imagery, layout, or copy (text) of any kind is not tolerated and will result in a failing grade. In the event of an act of plagiarism, you will be reported to the University for academic review.

Professionalism
Cell Phones
Cell phones are to remain off or in silent mode during the full class session. Please do not text message or use your phone in the classroom, except for emergencies. In the case of an emergency phone call please take the call outside.

Musics/Headphones
Headphones are not permitted during lectures/presentations by either the professor or your classmates.

Studio Work Time
We share Bay Hall 234 with a number of other classes. You are encouraged to stay until the end of each class to work on your projects.

Academic Advising
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. Degree plans are prepared in the CLA Academic Advising Center. The University uses an online Degree Audit system. Any amendment must be approved by the Department Chair and the Office of the Dean. All courses and requirements specified in the final degree plan audit must be completed before a degree will be granted. The CLA Academic Advising Office is located in Driftwood #203. For more information please call 361-825-3466.

Grade Appeal Process
Students who feel that they have not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in this class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details on the process of submitting a formal grade appeal, please visit the College of Liberal Arts website, cla.tamucc.edu/students/studentinfo.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Associate Dean’s Office.

Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall, Room #116.
If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
