VIII. Evaluation and Grade Assignment
A. Method and Percentage of Final Course Grades each Assessment Constitutes:
   1. Traditional Assessment
      a. Term Project: (See Paragraph XII.)
      A research project structured to pull together class activities, and various theories, philosophies and practices is required. The APA bibliography format will be followed.

b. Tests: Tests covering objectives contained in handouts, library materials, presentations, films, and the text will be completed at the time scheduled. Permission for any exceptions must be obtained prior to the test date.

2. Performance Assessment

   a. Attendance: Due to the nature of the course, attendance and participation at each class session is important and required.

   b. Participation (Class & Group):

      1) Students are expected to participate and engage during class. This includes, but is not limited to, participating in in-class assignments, group discussions & group exercises.

      2) Participation is also measured in attendance & punctuality to class. It should be noted that attendance and punctuality is expected and will be excused only under special circumstances as determined by the instructor. Given that true learning takes place in discussion and interaction with others where students express and articulate their ideas, participation is a crucial aspect of this course.

      3) In groups students will be expected to willingly participate as a leader and participant. It is not necessary to have a problem to invest in the group. The focus will be on goal achievement, interpersonal relationships, and personal self-exploration. To improve skills, it may be necessary to take some risks and to try some new behaviors in the group. If you don’t feel you can participate fully in the group process, you should NOT BE ENROLLED IN CNEP 5361 at this time.

   c. Daily Journal/Log: Obtaining a Masters Degree in Counseling is a journey of self-awareness and self-discovery. You are the primary instrument in the counseling process. Knowing self is imperative. A log or journal summarizing observations regarding the daily class and group experience will be completed. An entry should be made after each day’s class and group session. The entry should be a description of how you reacted (emotionally & cognitively) to other class/group members, situations, and self as opposed to a verbatim account of events that occurred during the group session. Do not identify class or group members by name.

3. Final grades will be based on the following:

   a. Term Project 40%

   b. Tests 20%

   c. Performance Assessment 40% - (Attendance, Participation, Log)

B. Grade Assignment

1. Term Project (See Paragraph XII.)

   Research, Paper, Presentation, Implementation of a group counseling technique.
2. Performance Assessment
   a. Attendance: Students missing more than 1 class session will not be eligible for an “A”, and those missing 3 or more will not be eligible for a “B” in the course.
   b. Participation: Students will be assessed on their participation by the instructor as specified in paragraph VIII, A, 2 above.
   c. Daily Journal/Log: Students will be assessed on their ability to self-assess and reflect on how the class teachings and group experience affected them and their growth in this educational process.

3. Overall Course Grade Assignment will be:
   A = 100-90 points
   B = 80-89
   C = 70-79
   D = 60-69
   F = below 69

A. Attendance

1. In the past, successful students have found it useful to be on time and prepared for each class. This is accomplished by:
   a. Attending each class
   b. Having all assigned readings completed
   c. Participation in class discussions.
2. Students are responsible for all information disseminated in class (even if the student is absent). You are adults and have adult lives and responsibilities. If an emergency arises, take care of yourself and your family. You cannot learn if you are distracted by emergencies. Only family emergencies are considered excused absences. I encourage you to strike a balance between your education and family life. You are responsible for obtaining missed material from fellow classmates.

3. My attendance policy:
   a. Upon your third absence, you will have a 10% deduction in your grade.
   b. For each subsequent absence an additional 10% is deducted.
   c. In other words: During the summer session when each class session is the equivalent to three regular semester class sessions—students missing more than 1 class session will not be eligible for an “A”, and those missing 3 or more will not be eligible for a “B” for the course.

B. Late Work—All late assignments receive a letter grade deduction. No late assignment will be accepted one week after due date. Any assignments not turned in by the last day of class will not be graded.

C. Cell Phones—All cell phones must be turned off and remain off during class.

D. Syllabus Statement on Disabilities:
   1. Students with disabilities, including learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide documentation of his /her disability to the Disability Services counselor. For more information, call or visit Disability Services at 824-5816.
   2. Veterans with possible PTSD concerns or students with any other concerns please see instructor if special considerations/accommodations need to be considered.

E. Syllabus Disclaimer:
   1. While the provisions of this syllabus are as accurate and complete as possible, the instructor reserves the right to change any provisions herein, with notice if circumstances so warrant. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of such changes and information about such changes will be available at all times from the instructor.
   2. It is the responsibility of each student to know what changes, if any, have been made to the provisions of this syllabus and to successfully complete the requirements of this course. Questions regarding information on the syllabus and course requirements need to be addressed by students when the syllabus is received.

XII. Instructions for Term Project-Group Technique Presentation and Implementation

The following assignment will be considered a term project for this course.

1. The purpose of this assignment is to provide a format for you to research and learn a specific technique from a specific theory that you could teach to the class and then implement in the group setting as the leader.
2. The technique will be appropriate for the developmental stage of the group.
3. You will prepare a paper in APA format on the technique you present and implement and cite the appropriate sources.
4. Evaluation will focus on appropriateness of selection, correctness of form, style of presentation, richness and accuracy of content and personal evaluation.
