I. Course Description

EdUC 5353 3 sem. hrs. Classroom Management and the Student

This course serves as a basic course that deals with how teachers manage their classrooms and motivate the students to be the best they can be. Course activities include readings from the textbooks, discussion forums so that students can interact with each other, group work, written assignments and other forms of learning and interaction. The goal of the course is to enable students to become excellent teachers in the State of Texas.

II. Rationale

Classroom Management and the Student is a graduate level course that provides the students with information and practice in the dimensions and complexities of teaching. This course also provides the student with a foundational knowledge of classroom management, and the role of a teacher. What outstanding teachers do in the classroom will be the overarching theme of this course.

III. Course Format

This class will be online and will last 7 weeks. A new unit will be presented each week so it is important that students keep up with the work as it is assigned. If any student has trouble using online classes a student tutorial is available on the Island Online website http://iol.tamucc.edu and the island helpdesk phone number is 361-825-2825.
IV. STATE ADOPTED PROFICIENCIES
1. LEARNER-CENTERED KNOWLEDGE: The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.

2. LEARNER-CENTERED INSTRUCTION: To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identified needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.

3. EQUITY IN EXCELLENCE FOR ALL LEARNERS: The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.

4. LEARNER-CENTERED COMMUNICATION: While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.

5. LEARNER-CENTERED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students’ success, demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain ethics and personal integrity.

V. TEExES COMPENTENCIES

VI. Course Objectives and Outcomes

Course goals:
A. Develop a well-informed perspective of teaching as a profession
B. Increase understanding of classroom management and how it affects students
C. Increase knowledge of organizational skills that are to be used in the classroom.
D. Increase understanding of the effect that interesting lesson plans have on classroom management.
E. Gain experience in promoting a positive student learning environment.

Course objectives:
A-1. Formulate a pedagogically sound and personally comfortable classroom management plan.
B-1. Summarize and discuss applications of developmental, behavioral and cognitive learning theories and how they affect student behavior
B-2. Summarize and discuss the critical role of acceptable student behavior in the teaching/learning process
C-1. Utilize Bloom’s taxonomy to develop a range of appropriate written instructional objectives having to do with student behavior
C-2. Incorporate the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) into lesson planning
C-7. Plan management strategies that are designed to meet students’ special learning
VII. Course Topics

The major topics to be considered are:
- Classroom Management
- Classroom Organization
- Learner-Centered Knowledge
- Learner-Centered Instruction
- Equity in Excellence for all Learners
- Learner-Centered Communication
- Learner-Centered Professional Development

VIII. Instructional Methods and Activities

Methods and activities for instruction include:
This course will be course delivered on-line using textbook readings, discussion forums and other activities. This course is reading and writing intensive and therefore it is critical that the assigned chapters are read carefully and all assignment are completed without spelling and grammatical errors.

X. Course Requirements

1. Participation/Active learning is based on the assumption that:
   a) Students will read all assigned reading materials.
   b) Students will raise relevant questions, contribute relevant observations to the topic being considered, and reflect on the content and activities of the course via Discussion Forum.
   c) Student participation will reflect prior completion of reading assignments.
d) Participation will reflect awareness of appropriate interpersonal communication, i.e., use of “I” statements, as well appropriate on-line protocol.

2. Discussion Forums

Students are expected to participate and share the initiation of intellectual dialogue and to guide themselves, and their classmates, in the dissemination, analysis, and creation of course relevant information. In particular, students must maintain communicative visibility when engaged in an online discussion forum. They must not rely on others to carry online dialogue. Everyone must proactively contribute to these discussions.

XI. Course Schedule and Policies

The course schedules are located in the “Course Content” section of Blackboard, our on-line provider.

XII. Textbooks

The textbooks adopted for this course are:

XIV. Grade Appeals

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

XV. Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodations of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services Office at (361) 825-5816 or visit the office in Driftwood 101.
XVI. Course Expectations

At times I will intentionally leave doors partially open or ambiguous in hopes that you will shape and alter activities to meet your individual needs and interests. Please use this course as an excuse to try something new or to force yourself to see things from a different perspective. This course is not about “what I want you to do” – I am merely a guide – exposing you to new things throughout the semester – it is up to you to shape the course into a meaningful and enjoyable experience.

I have very high expectations from each of you and hope you have high expectations of the course as well. I promise to try my best to make this course as useful and enriching as possible for each of you. Students are expected to participate and share the initiation of intellectual dialogue and to guide themselves, and their classmates, in the dissemination, analysis, and creation of course relevant information. They must not rely on others to carry Discussion Forum dialogue. Everyone must proactively contribute to these discussions. Therefore, in order to perform efficiently and effectively, students must keep up with all the assigned readings. A student must not be a "quick study" reacting to postulates, but rather must respond confidently with acquired and incisive knowledge. A student must posit relevant questions, find useful applications. These items serve as examples of student intellectual performance, which in-turn affects the instructor’s assessment.

1. Students are expected to engage as co-participants in this course working closely and consistently with professor and student colleagues.
2. Students are expected to show human concern for each of those with whom they work and study, while presenting a positive attitude and professional demeanor.
3. Students are expected to engage respectfully in a dynamic on-line environment, creating and maintaining a safe place in which ideas can be explored, shared, and evaluated.
4. Students are expected to submit work that meets the academic honesty standards of Texas A&M Corpus Christi.
5. Students are expected to respect the rights and dignity of each member of the campus community.
6. Students are expected to contact the instructor with questions, concerns, or issues that need to be addressed.
Policy

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in an “F” in the course.
