Course Policies

General Student Performance Expectations

Students will be expected to complete every assignment on time. Students are expected to read, analyze, and study all assigned material to complete the assignments. All chapter material is the responsibility of the student to read and understand. Any questions may be e-mailed to the instructors.

All written assignments should be submitted on time through Blackboard. The MindTap assignments (self-assessments and practice quizzes) can be accessed directly through the Cengage website.
Grades on late assignments will be reduced by one letter grade; if over 24 hours late, reduced by two letter grades; and if 48 hours late, by three letter grades. Assignments over 48 hours late will not be accepted. Any approved assignment make-ups will be on a case-by-case basis. It is very important that each student stay current in the course.

Exams

All exams will be closed-book, closed-notes and may be proctored. In this fully online class, you will take your tests remotely and they may be proctored by a service called Examity®. To use Examity®, you will need to make sure you meet the following technical requirements:

- You must take your exam on a computer with a webcam and a microphone (both built-in and external are fine).
- You must take your exam from a location with sufficient internet speed: at least 700KBPS upload and download speed. You can test your internet speed at http://www.speedtest.net. If you have any questions or concerns, you can contact Examity's technical support team 24/7 via email at support@examity.com or phone at (855) - 392-6489. Examity® involves third party charges.
- Exam-proctoring charges may range from $3 - $31.50 per exam. Students may be required to schedule exams at least 24 hours in advance or incur late scheduling charges.
- All costs for exams are the responsibility of the student. Students are also responsible for providing webcams and microphones to be used in test proctoring.

Feedback

Feedback will be provided within a week, if possible.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in failing the course.
Dropping a Class

I hope that you do not find it necessary to drop this class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class.

Required method of scholarly citations

All referenced material should use APA citations and referencing.

Classroom/professional behavior

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost.

Disabilities Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodations for their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116. If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Statement of Academic Continuity

In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course will continue through Blackboard. If Blackboard is down, messages will be posted on the home page of Connect. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus.
