VIII. Course Policies and Resources

Attendance Policy
Attendance is crucial to your success in this program and your development as a professional. Attendance is expected. Due to the nature of this course, participation is critical. Please arrive to class on time and be prepared to stay until the class is dismissed. Anyone who misses two face-to-face sessions (without a valid excuse) will have their final course grade reduced by one full letter grade. Any combination of arriving late or leaving early constitutes one absence. Contact your instructor as necessary in this regard.

You may be excused from attending a given class session if you are attending a school-sanctioned activity or if you have a written doctor’s excuse. You must provide written authorization for University-sanctioned absences. It is your responsibility to check with fellow classmates for any missed work or assignments. If you are going to be tardy or absent, contact your instructor.

Make-up Policy
You are personally responsible for all material discussed in class, even if you have a doctor’s excused absence. You will need to make your own arrangements for material covered during the time you are absent from class. The instructor does not provide lecture notes for student use.

Please demonstrate respect and responsibility as a part of this learning community. You are expected to exhibit an attitude of respect and responsibility as follows:

- Check your Islander email at least every two days.
- Post online assignments on time.
- Respect and be sensitive toward other classmates by choosing your words carefully.
- Don't get behind. If you get behind in a hybrid course, it is very difficult to get back on track.
• Keep up with assignments and grades. Grades will be available in Blackboard: check them regularly to make sure you are current with assignments.
• You are expected to demonstrate maturity and self-direction and to manage your own affairs.
• Instructor response time: All email, voicemail, or texts to the instructor will be answered promptly and within 48 hours at the very latest—and usually much sooner.

Late Work:

If you submit any assignment including online course work late, you are subject to a 20% reduction of your grade for the late work.

Class attendance, punctuality and participation are reflections of a future teacher’s commitment to his/her preparation for teaching. On time arrivals (and departures of all class sessions throughout the semester is worth 50 points – full credit. Twenty-five points is deducted for each class absence (other than university-approved). Ten points are deducted for each late arrival or early departure.

Academic Integrity and Working with Other Students

Please know and adhere to copyright laws. The work you submit must be your own. It must also be work completed specifically for this course.

Do not plagiarize another person’s material. Instances of plagiarism are a serious matter: they will be handled in accordance with Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi General Academic Policies and Regulations as listed in the current catalog.

Any problems in working with other students should be brought to the attention of the instructor immediately so that solutions may be enacted to ensure that all members benefit from the course experience.

Library resources (including print, electronic, and human) can be accessed through the Mary and Jeff Bell Library website that supports electronic searches of articles, books, journals, course reserves, and databases. It includes information such as Ask a Librarian, research tools, remote access information and tutorials, information about plagiarism and copyright, and interlibrary loan (http://rattler.tamucc.edu/distlearn/). The library is a member of TexShare which provides you with a card that allows you to checkout materials from libraries across Texas. Librarians’ contact

Classroom/professional behavior

All students are expected to act in a responsible manner with consideration of fellow students and toward TAMU-CC faculty and staff members. Specific rules and information is available in the TAMU-CC Student Handbook and available through the website http://judicialaffairs.tamucc.edu/studentcofc.html.

Statement of Academic Continuity

In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.

Dropping the Course: Even if you never attend or start then stop attending—it is your responsibility to formally drop the course through the University Registrar’s Office. You will not be automatically dropped if you “fail to appear.” If you have concerns about completing the course and are considering dropping or withdrawing, contact your instructor first.

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://advising.tamucc.edu/grade_appeals.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Disabilities Accommodations*

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in CCH 116. See website http://disabilityservices.tamucc.edu/.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

*Required by Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)

The Texas A & M University – Corpus Christi’s College of Education does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the recruitment and admission of students, the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff, and the operation of any of its programs and activities, as specified by federal laws and regulations. The student has the responsibility of informing the course instructor of any disabling condition that will require modifications to avoid discrimination.
