Introduction to Public Administration

Course Description
The study of organization and management theories and practices of public administration affecting federal and subnational governments. Bureaucratic structures and procedures will be examined for their effects on policy, program development and evaluation.

Student Learning Outcomes:
Specifically, the outcomes of this course are for you to demonstrate the following:

1. Understand Definitions, Concepts, and Theories
2. Demonstrate Advanced Knowledge in One Major Area.
3. Translate Skills to Professional or Graduate Program, or Career

The focus of this course is to introduce you to the several aspects or subfields that comprise the study of public administration and democratic governance within the public sector. You will also be introduced to concepts regarding organizations, leadership and motivation. These concepts will then be applied through the use of assigned applied exercises.

Participation
Participation is more than simply attending class. All classes require active, engaged learners to succeed, and this class is no different. In order to be an active learner it is absolutely essential that reading be done before coming to class. You will not be able to “catch up” as the class proceeds, and you will also miss out on most of the interesting points in the discussions. In order to ensure active participation, you will be assigned the presentation and discussion of the exercises or case study within a group format. Remember that participation will count for 10 percent of your grade.

Make-up exams
Make-up exams will be given only for emergency situation and must be cleared in advance. There is no extra-credit work in this class.

Required Texts

Course Requirements
The requirements for this course include 3 exams; 2 applied exercises and presentations; and, a research paper. The exams will be multiple choice, short answer and essay format. The grading for this course is depicted below:

The exercises will be conducted in a group discussion format; however, the assignment is to be turned in on an individual basis. Separate guidelines and expectations will be provided. These assignments will be due at the beginning of the class period following the group discussion. Late papers will have a 10 point penalty. NO ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED LATER THAN ONE WEEK. The groups will also present the exercise on the day that it is due.

A short video analysis paper will be assigned. Separate guidelines will be provided.

The research paper will focus on designing an organizational structure of an agency. In this class, we will use the American Psychological Association format for citations and references. Separate guidelines will be provided for this paper.

Grading Scale: Grades are available through Blackboard.

Class Attendance
All students are expected to attend EVERY class. The major valid excuses for missing a class are school-related, illness and death. For participation credit, 100% = no more than 1 unexcused absence; 90% = 2; 80% = 3; 70% = 4; 60% = 5; 0% > 6. Documentation for excused absences must be submitted upon your return to class.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in a grade of F.

Dropping a Class
I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. November 11, 2016 is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.

Classroom/professional behavior
Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.
Grade Appeals
Students who feel they have not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details on the process of submitting a formal grade appeal, please visit the College of Liberal Arts website (http://cla.tamucc.edu/about/student-resources.html). For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Associate Dean.

*Notice to Students with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Academic Advising
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Academic Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, a faculty mentor, and the department chair. The College's Academic Advising Center is located in Driftwood 203E, and can be reached at 825-3466.
