Course Description
This course develops an understanding of color properties and relationships through formal exercises, research and creative thinking. Students build a vocabulary for analyzing and identifying color and color phenomena. Concepts of color theorists and color use in a variety of fields are examined to understand the application of color theory.

Course Goals
1. Students will learn about nuance of color properties and their application.
2. Students will engage in individual research and idea development to creatively respond to color challenges.
3. Students will learn about the impact of presentation and craftsmanship on design solutions.
4. Students will understand the use of color by professionals in art and design fields.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Develop and demonstrate a basic working understanding of the visual nature, behavior, and interaction of color including color dimensions of hue, value, intensity, temperature and contrast in both additive and subtractive modes.
2. Develop and demonstrate a foundational understanding of the role and application of color in the history of art and design and color’s cultural and emotional dimensions.
3. Develop and demonstrate a basic understanding of color as relates to composition and form.
4. Develop and demonstrate a basic knowledge and understanding of prominent color theorists and their writings regarding color.
5. Develop and utilize in critiques a vocabulary for discussing color as it pertains to art and design.

Course Structure
The assignments in this course are sequential and build upon each other. Therefore attendance is extremely important. If a student MUST miss a class, they MUST make up the missing work before progressing to the next assignment. Class time will be used so the instructor can explain assignments and provide feedback. Students must also devote several hours between classes to make further progress in their practice. The successful completion of this course will lay a strong foundation for further pursuits in visual arts.

Participation in Critiques and Late Work Policy
Attendance at Critiques is mandatory. Critiques are an essential part of the creative process. Students should be open to hearing feedback about the quality of their work on an ongoing basis throughout the semester. When receiving criticism, listen with an open mind. The value of being in school, and in a small studio class, is not only to give and receive as much feedback as possible but to learn how to make the most of it.

You must be present on the day of critique/due date or your project with be marked down.

One class period late: 10 point deduction, Two class periods late: 20 point deduction. After that you will receive a ZERO.

Grading Opportunities:
• Color Journal part #1 20%
• Color Journal part #2 20%
• Project 1: Complementary Color Triptych 20%
• Project 2: Optical Mixing 10%
• Project 3: Bezold 10%
• Post Test: 5%
• Final Project: 15%

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://academicaffairs.tamucc.edu/rules_procedures/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean's office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost. For complete details on the process of submitting a formal grade appeal, please visit the College of Liberal Arts website, http://cla.tamucc.edu/about/student-resources.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Associate Dean's Office.

Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Academic Advising
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. Degree plans are prepared in the CLA Academic Advising Center. The University uses an online Degree Audit system. Any amendment must be approved by the Department Chair and the Office of the Dean. All courses and requirements specified in the final degree plan audit must be completed before a degree will be granted. The CLA Academic Advising Office is located in Driftwood #203. For more information, please call 361-825-3466.
