Course Description:
This course will introduce you to United States History from the end of the Civil War to the 21st century. We will look at some of the major political, economic, and especially social changes that took place during this period, paying particular attention to issues of race, class and gender, and how "ordinary" people helped shape the nation we know today. The course covers themes including citizenship and inclusion in the nation, urbanization, imperialism and nationalism.

Student Learning Outcomes:
Students who successfully complete this course will:
• demonstrate critical thinking by combining, changing, or reapplying existing information, gathering and assessing information relevant to a question, and analyzing, evaluating, and synthesizing information
• develop communication skills by interpreting and expressing ideas through written, oral, or visual communication
• demonstrate personal responsibility by evaluating historical choices and actions, and relating consequences to decision making
• develop social responsibility by identifying intercultural competence and civic responsibility in past regional, national, and global communities

Assignments:
Three in-class exams. These are NOT cumulative. A study guide will be posted ahead of time.
Exam 1 – 15% of your overall grade
Exam 2 – 20% of your overall grade
Exam 3 – 25% of your overall grade

Position Paper – Assignment sheet on Blackboard. 20% of your overall grade.

Quizzes – Almost weekly reading quizzes. Your two lowest scores will be dropped. 20% of your overall grade.

Attendance - I expect you to attend every class, and to participate. Even though I do not take attendance every day, knowing the material covered in lecture is essential to doing well on course assignments. I do not post or share my notes or slides. Participation comes from not only being there, but contributing intelligently to class discussion, taking part in group work, completing in-class assignments, and attending office hours.

Grade Breakdown:
A: 90-100
B: 80-89
C: 70-79
D: 60-69
F: 59 or below

If you have a question about an individual grade on an assignment, please come to my office hours to discuss. If you would like to dispute your grade, I am more than happy to speak with you, but you need to wait 24 hours after the assignment is returned before approaching me.

Texts:
Required:

Primary Sources available online

Supplies:
You will need three bluebooks, three scantrons (Form 882-E – the long, green ones), and a #2 pencil.

Policies and Expectations:
Since you are in college, I expect you to approach this class like the responsible adults you are. This means:

- Arriving to class on time

- Turning off cell phones, music players, and other distractions. And putting them away.
Your phone needs to stay in your backpack/bag/purse during class time – you do not need a phone out during lecture. Please do not text during class time, or I will ask you to leave lecture. Take care of it before or after class.

- You are welcome to use laptop computers for appropriate classroom activities, such as taking notes, but I reserve the right to ask students who are doing other things (like checking email, facebook, or completing assignments for other courses) to leave class. With repeated offences your laptop privileges will be suspended.

- I WILL NOT accept late work. Seriously. All assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of your class time – no exceptions. This includes all written work, exams and quizzes. Written assignments are due at the BEGINNING of class in print form (not email) unless I specify something different. If assignments are turned in after I start the day’s lecture, they are considered late and points will be docked. I expect you to be in class to take all exams and quizzes. I do not offer make-ups except under EXTRAORDINARY circumstances. Vacations, colds, doctor’s appointments, changes in work schedules etc. do not count as extraordinary. That said, I want you to succeed in this class, so if something comes up that will impact your ability to come to class and meet the expectations of the course, please let me know as soon as possible. If you do have an extraordinary circumstance come up, I will expect you to contact me right away, and provide documentation.

- I do not post or share notes or Powerpoint slides. If you miss class it is your responsibility to get the notes from a classmate.

- You are also responsible for:
  1. adding and dropping yourself from the course – I can’t do this for you.
  2. tracking your grade in the course. There are many free grade calculator apps you can put on your phone that will help you with this.
  3. checking your Texas A&M email account frequently. “I didn’t get the email” is not a valid excuse.

- I expect you to abide by TAMUCC’s Student Code of Conduct, which can be found at http://academicaffairs.tamucc.edu/Rules_Procedures/index.html

- TUMUCC’s policies on academic integrity and plagiarism are available at http://cla.tamucc.edu/forms/academicmisconductprocedures.pdf. If you cheat or plagiarize on one or more assignments you will fail this course.

- In the event of a hurricane, flooding, or another incident, I will follow the published policies of TAMU-CC. If the campus remains officially open during the time that our class normally meets then class will proceed as scheduled (including all graded events). If the university closes campus then we will push the course requirements to the next official class meeting. If an exam date is cancelled, the exam will be held during the next official class meeting, so come prepared.
