I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will provide the student with general knowledge of the judicial system and current legal issues in sport including risk management, the law of negligence, discrimination, Title IX, and issues related to intellectual property.

II. RATIONALE

This course is designed to introduce students to multiple legal principals associated with sport, recreation, and physical education. Students will be provided with a basic understanding of the legal concepts related to the intersection of sport and the law. The growth of litigation in the sport, recreation, and physical education industries has required future professionals to be able to recognize potential areas of liability and opportunities to lessen or avoid liability. This course will help the learner to understand how legal concepts relate to the sport, recreation, and physical education industries and help prepare students to apply critical thinking skills that impact management decisions in the sport, recreation, and physical education industries to legal issues or disputes.

III. STATE ADOPTED PROFICIENCIES

A. LEARNER-CENTERED KNOWLEDGE: The teacher possesses and draws on a rich knowledge base of content, pedagogy, and technology to provide relevant and meaningful learning experiences for all students.

B. LEARNER-CENTERED INSTRUCTION: To create a learner-centered community, the teacher collaboratively identifies needs; and plans, implements, and assesses instruction using technology and other resources.

C. EQUITY IN EXCELLENCE FOR ALL LEARNERS: The teacher responds appropriately to diverse groups of learners.

D. LEARNER-CENTERED COMMUNICATION: While acting as an advocate for all students and the school, the teacher demonstrates effective professional and interpersonal communication skills.

E. LEARNER-CENTERED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The teacher, as a reflective practitioner dedicated to all students’ success, demonstrates a commitment to learn, to improve the profession, and to maintain ethics and personal integrity.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES / LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Define and understand basic legal concepts including: the make-up of the legal system, different types of legal authority, how a lawsuit works, and legal resources available.

2. Integrate the understanding of the law into the risk management process.

Discussion Boards: Weekly discussions will cover material in textbook and supplementary material. Discussions should demonstrate understanding from readings and underlying concepts, including correct use of terminology. Postings may ask students to integrate an outside resource, or relevant research into responses, to support important points. All postings that use outside sources must use APA citation use proper grammar.

Chapter Quizzes: This course will use online quizzes as a part of evaluating student knowledge. Quizzes will be a combination of multiple choice and true/false. They will cover information from the current chapter, and other assigned readings if applicable. You may use your book and notes, however, the quizzes are timed and you will not have time to look up all of the answers.

Midterm: There will be a midterm exam. Examination questions will cover material from lecture, the textbook, discussion boards, class activities and other relevant materials. Questions may be presented in multiple choice, true false, matching, short answer, and essay form.
Final Exam: There will be a final exam. Examination questions will cover material from lecture, the textbook, discussion boards, class activities and other relevant materials. Questions may be presented in multiple choice, true false, matching, short answer, and essay form.

Assignments: Assignments will be assigned throughout the semester. These are designed to link required reading material and discussions to concepts in the field.

Extra Credit: Periodically, extra credit opportunities may be available to students.

GRADING SCALE (percent of total grade):
A = 90 – 100
B = 80 – 89

IX. CLASS POLICIES
• ATTENDANCE online is asynchronous meaning that readings, discussions and assignments will be posted at the beginning of the week (Monday morning) and will be due at the end of the week (Sunday evening at 11:59pm). Students are expected to actively participate in class discussions and activities. With the flexibility of the online class and assignment due dates, all students should have sufficient time to complete all quizzes, assignments and quizzes. The student is responsible for informing the instructor if class participation will be affected by “approved university business”. Excused absences are limited to medical emergencies that can be verified in writing by a physician, or participation in a TAMU-CC sanctioned event.

• LATE ASSIGNMENTS and quizzes will NOT be accepted. In addition, quizzes and tests cannot be retaken other than for an excused absence. The student must provide the instructor reasonable warning of the absence at the earliest opportunity (such as a schedule of out-of-town games). Documentation of university-approved commitments is required by the instructor. Documentation for absences due to personal emergencies may be requested by the instructor. Make up opportunities will NOT be permitted for class-work or assignments missed due to UNEXCUSED absences. Assignments/other assigned work are due the day they are scheduled to be due at the time they are scheduled.

• MAKE-UP EXAMS are given only under dire circumstances in which prior permission from the instructor is required.
• APPROPRIATE CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR: students are asked to be respectful of their fellow classmates and the instructor when participating in this course. Each person is entitled to their opinion, and encouraged to express that opinion. However, please do so in an appropriate and respectful manner. Also, students are expected to be prepared for each class, and be focused on the activities of the class. Appropriate questions and discussions are welcome during the course, whether it be on discussion boards, the Classroom Café, or in other forums. Although this is an online course, respect, professionalism, and courtesy are expected at all times. Students who exhibit rude or disrespectful behavior to others may result in a reduced final grade or failure of the course.

• University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic or scholastic dishonesty, including plagiarism, collusion, or cheating on any examination, test, or classroom assignment will be treated with the greatest severity. See the student catalog for consequences of student misconduct.

XI. GRADE APPEALS

As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

XII. ACADEMIC HONESTY

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.)

Disciplinary action for academic misconduct is the responsibility of the faculty member assigned to the course. The faculty member is charged with assessing the gravity of any case of academic dishonesty, and with giving sanction to any student involved. Penalties that may be applied to individual cases of academic dishonesty include one or more of the following:

• Written reprimand;
• Requirement to re-do work in question;
• Requirement to submit additional work;
• Lowering of grade on work in question;
• Assigning grade of “F” to work in question;
• Assigning grade of “F” for course;
• Recommendation for more severe punishment.

If the faculty member determines that assigning a grade of “F” to the course is the appropriate penalty and this disciplinary action occurs prior to the deadline for dropping courses, the student forfeits his/her right to drop the course in question.

The faculty member may file a record of cases of academic dishonesty, including a description of the disciplinary action taken, along with any materials involved, with his or her college dean and the Office of Student Affairs. The office of the academic dean of the college in which the offense took place will maintain records of all cases of academic dishonesty reported for a period of not more than two years. Any student who has been penalized for academic dishonesty has the right to appeal the judgment or the penalty assessed (See XIII above).

XIII. DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATIONS
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116. If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

XV. Statement of Civility
Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of gender, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, age, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

XVI. Statement of Academic Continuity
In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, websites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.

XVII. Dropping a Class
The instructor hopes that a student never finds it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult the instructor before deciding to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, students must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in a student being dropped from the class. June 15 is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.
