FINAL EXAM

One single exam will be cumulative and it will be administered at the end of the semester. Students are responsible for all reading assignments, regardless of whether a particular reading is fully covered during the discussions. Questions on exams will be taken from the reading assignments, handouts posted to Blackboard, videos and/or case discussions.

MIDTERM AND FINAL PROJECTS

Students will conduct a research product and/or case analysis. The content of the research project should be in sufficient depth to exceed the extent to which the textbook covers the material. This project will include the design, collection of data and analysis. Format, deadlines and more details will be posted to Blackboard.
CASE ANALYSIS/DISCUSSIONS
Selected topics and/or cases will be discussed or analyzed during the semester. Participation in class discussions is required, of each student. The consistent quantity and quality of participation (high quality comments are based on knowledge gained from assigned readings, class discussions, and assignments) over the entire semester will account for 60% of your final grade. Selected topics, format, deadlines and more details are posted to Blackboard.

COURSE POLICIES

Method of Instruction: The course is arranged in 7 weekly modules with deadlines. Deadlines are indicated for each activity of a learning module. Therefore, this is not a self-paced class. Content delivery and all communication will be in written form. Instead of lectures, you have to read the written material. Written material typically includes book chapters, teacher notes and group discussions. Content also includes audio-visuals and/or student presentations. Since no face-to-face meetings are scheduled, our textbook becomes our main source of information. Be sure to get the required edition.

Time Management: This online course is asynchronous. This means there are no meetings scheduled during the semester. You should plan to log in to Blackboard at least three days a week throughout the semester to read and/or post new discussion group messages, check email, get updates about the content, and obtain other relevant information.

Contact Information: E-mail ensures the quickest response. I generally respond to Blackboard e-mail the same day. You can also contact me anytime you see me online via Blackboard chat.

Questions: When you don’t know something or are confused about a particular topic, do not hesitate to ask me. There are probably others in the same situation.

Assignment/Project Deadlines: The project deadline must be met in a timely manner and the assignments must be sent to the instructor or teaching assistant via Blackboard-Assignment tab. The failure to complete any assignment or project at the specified time represents a failure to meet your responsibilities. Any assignment, which is not submitted at the specified time, will receive a grade of zero (0).

Written Assignments: Written work must be prepared in a professional manner. It is to be clearly written, neat in appearance, with proper grammatical construction and correct spelling. Work which is not presented in a professional manner will be reduced a full letter grade. The grade assigned to written work will reflect both its appearance and analytical soundness.

Handing in Your Work: Everything that you turn in to be graded needs to be neat in appearance, including:
- Attaching a cover page that clearly indicates your name and ID. If turning in a group project, name is sufficient.
- Work should be double-spaced.
- Use 12 pt. (Times New Roman) font, and 1-inch margins all around.
- Pages should be numbered and in sequential order.

Statement of Civility: Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Code of Ethics: This course, and all other courses offered by the College of Business, requires all of its students to abide by the College of Business Student Code of Ethics (available online at www.cob.tamucc.edu/current_students/ethics.html).
Academic Integrity: University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work). In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in at least a score of zero for the work in question.

Dropping a Class: I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class.

Grade Appeals: As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost.

Special Accommodations: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116. Statement of Academic Continuity: In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.

Exam Proctoring Fees: Courses may require the use of exam-proctoring involving third party charges. Exam-proctoring charges may range from $1.00 - $50.00 per exam. Students may be required to schedule exams at least 24 hours in advance or incur late scheduling charges. All costs for exams are the responsibility of the student. Students may also be responsible for providing webcams to be used in test proctoring.
