A Word from your Instructor:
The focus of this class is active, experiential learning. Much of the value that you attain from this course will depend on what you are willing to put into the course: academically, emotionally, and socially. While there are always some risks in such an investment, there are also ample rewards. For some of you, the format, structure, and learning techniques utilized in this class will be new to you and may be somewhat difficult to adjust to initially. Experiential learning provides an extremely relevant method for examining the field of outdoor adventure. I hope you will approach this course with an open mind and a willingness to learn and overcome fear in a new way. I think you will be richly rewarded, both personally and academically.

VIII. Evaluation & Grade Assignment
1. Chapters 1-5 at the “end of the chapter” assignments worth 20 points each. To complete the assignments, you must present a teambuilding activity found in the book to a group of people.

2. One term paper worth 100 points over an Outdoor Adventure Program. (Details forthcoming).
3. The facilitating of at least one adventure game, initiative problem or trust activity worth 100 points. (Details forthcoming).

4. Participation in outdoor adventure activities. (20 pts. each).
5. Class diary worth 10 points each (details forthcoming).
6. Internet assignment worth 50 points. (details forthcoming).
7. Attendance: 10 pts for each class.
8. Safety is a major issue in this class. Each adventure activity comes with some risk. Please be careful!

9. Activities. Each activity you participate in is worth 10 points. The camping trip is worth 100 points. It is expected that you will participate in all activities, even if you are afraid of or are proficient in some of these activities. If you miss two activities for any reason, your grade will automatically be lowered by one. If you miss the camping trip for any reason other than medical, the best grade you can possibly make is a B.

Note: Alcohol consumption or use of any mind-altering drug before, during or right after any of the activities or during the camping trip is strictly forbidden!

Consequences for alcohol/drug use: you will receive an F for the class and will not be allowed to retake the class at TAMUCC. Please take this seriously - it will be enforced for your personal safety and the reputation of the university, the department, and the instructor.

Grading

90% - 100% of all possible points = A
80% - 89% of all possible points = B
70% - 79% of all possible points = C
60% - 69% of all possible points = D
<60% of all possible points = F

IX. Course Schedule & Class Policies

Due to the nature of the class, the Course Schedule will be available during the 2ND day.
1. Your class attendance is very important, especially since this class will be definitely “hands on.” When you're in class, we learn from you as much as you learn from us. Your knowledge, experiences, attitudes and values, and behaviors will all help in the learning process. You're rewarded for coming to class with 5 points and penalized 5 points for missing class with an unexcused absence. Only three excused absences are acceptable: 1) illness, 2) death in the family, and 3) class field trip.

If you miss class because of an excused absence, simply write your own note and turn it in on your return to class. On your note, identify the date you missed, why you missed, and sign it yourself. If it is an unexcused absence, no need to write a note - just come on back to class.

2. Late assignments: Late assignments will not be accepted. If you miss class, you are still responsible for turning in the work when it is due. If you miss the due date because of an excused absence, the work will be accepted with a note attached to the assignment.

3. Make-up tests: There will be no make-up tests given unless you have an excused absence and the professor is notified beforehand.

XII. Academic Integrity/Plagiarism*
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in a failing grade.

Dropping a Class

I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with your academic advisor, the Financial Aid Office, and me, before you decide to drop this course. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class November 15, 2017 is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.

Classroom/professional behavior

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.
Grade Appeals

As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost.

XIII. Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
