Evaluation and Grade Assignment
The following course requirements will be explained in detail during class meetings.

Points | Assignment
--- | ---
20 | Web Search
Conduct a search and find 2 quality web sites that deal with some aspect of this course (see class schedule). These sites may include: award-winning books, children’s literature newsletters, multicultural books, books that are grouped thematically, banned books, information about authors and illustrators, recommended books, or international books. Bring in printouts of the 3 sites you think are worthy of sharing with the class. Attach to each printout a short, critical review (one paragraph) that includes a summary of the site, what you like about it, and how you would use it. Sharing your web sites in class is part of the grade for this assignment.

50 | Author Profile & Book Talk/Trailer (Partners)
Five-minute PowerPoint or Prezi presentation of your assigned author. This is to be a highly enthusiastic presentation that will include the following:

- PowerPoint:
  - Slide 1: name and photo of the author
  - Slide 2 (Partner 1): No more than 5 bullet points about the author’s background to include – 1) where the author is from, 2) birthdate, 3) how and when the author became a writer, 4) images of 2-3 books written by the author (you need to have read at least TWO of the author’s books and have them available during your presentation)
  - Slide 3 (Partner 2): No more than 5 bullet points about 1) why the author writes children’s books, 2) one interesting fact that about the author that you would like to share, 3) quote by the author, 4) images of 2-3 other books written by the author (you need to have read at least TWO of the author’s books and have them available during your presentation)
  - Slide 4: Book Talk/Trailer: This is a 1 – 1 ½ minute talk about one of the books by your author that you have read. Think Reading Rainbow! You must video yourself doing the book talk/trailer and show it during your author presentation. (link or embedded video)

Submit your PowerPoint to Blackboard prior to class on the day you present.

20 Library and Bookstore
Visit the children’s and young adult’s sections of ONE public library and ONE bookstore. (NOT the TAMUCC Bell Library.) Submit a one-page, double-spaced summary of what you discovered for each site, for a total of TWO pages.

20 Literature Circle
You will join a group of students and participate in a book club with a shared text (chapter book). You will meet with your group twice during the semester during class. You will have a different role each time (more details in class). Turn in your role sheet to Blackboard each time. You must be present in class to receive credit for this assignment.

50 Final Exam

75 Literature Portfolio
Complete personal reviews/critiques of 15 books that represent 8 different genres (See below). These should be written IN YOUR OWN WORDS. List books by genre. Number books 1-15. Highlight in different colors the books for each submission. Include a small picture of each book cover. Included in this list can be the book you’re reading for your literature circle club and one book you’re reading by your assigned author.

Include:
- 5 picture storybooks,
1 realistic fiction (contemporary or problem novel) chapter books (at least one of these needs to be a challenged or banned book – see ALA website http://www.ala.org/advocacy/bbooks/frequentlychallengedbooks
2 folk narrative picture storybooks,
1 poetry books,
1 fantasy chapter book,
1 biography books,
1 historical fiction chapter books,
2 informational books,
1 graphic novel

Professionalism

Active participation is essential to overall successful class performance. This includes being on time for class, staying for the duration of class, engaging in class activities, and giving full attention when engaging in partner or group work. You are in class to learn, not work on other assignments or be on your phone.

250 Total Possible Points

Evaluation and Grading Scale

Assignments are scored based on completion of assigned task, accuracy, content, grammar, and spelling mistakes. Grades are contingent upon the completion and quality of assigned work and are based on the subjective evaluation by the professor. Please see rubrics for all assignments at the end of this syllabus and on Blackboard. Late assignments will automatically have points deducted at the discretion of the professor.

Final grades are calculated as a percent of total points earned:

A=92-100%
B=83-91%
C=74-82%
D= 66-74%

Required and Recommended Readings

Required texts:

15 books for children/adolescents based on the Literature Portfolio assignment described above. You may purchase these or check them out at your local library.

Recommended Resources:

Class Schedule (TBD)
Notes: Chapter readings and assignments are to be completed by class time. Assignments are due on the day they appear on the schedule. Topics may be added as dictated by the needs of the class.

University Policies and Procedures

Classroom Attendance and Participation
Due to the nature of this course, active student participation is essential to overall successful class performance. It is not enough to rely on others’ notes to make up for class activities and experiences. Additionally, failure to attend class regularly may place students at a severe disadvantage on the course assignments. If you are absent, ask a classmate for their notes. However, if you have a question about course material, please feel free to ask me to clarify during office hours.
Consequences for not attending class regularly:
Your final grade will be dropped one letter for each absence over one. One absence is defined as missing one complete class or arriving 20 minutes late or leaving 20 minutes before completion of the class. Please refer to The TAMUCC web page http://catalog.tamucc.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=177 for additional information.

Late Work and Make-Up Exams
Points will be deducted each day an assignment is late. It is up to the discretion of the professor whether or not work may be made up for credit.

Extra Credit

Cell Phone/Electronic Device Usage
Unless we are using devices as class resources, mobile phones, text messaging, and checking your cell phone, email, and text messages during class are all strictly prohibited. Come to class prepared to focus on class. You are to keep phones off the table and instead keep them in your bag, pocket, etc. Violations may result in being asked to withdraw from the course and/or failure of course. If there is a potential rising emergency, then prior notification of such possibility must be made known to me before the start of class and the phone set on vibrate.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in a failing grade.
Dropping a Class
I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with me before you decide to drop to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class.

Preferred Method of Scholarly Citations
All papers submitted are to follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, (6th ed.). See Blackboard menu tab, Helpful Links, for a CASA resource.

Classroom/Professional Behavior
You have chosen the greatest profession, one where you will be charged with leading the learning of children. Your journey to a certificate for this profession starts with these courses. I, your instructor, expect you to enter class each day fully present and prepared, with a positive attitude and a readiness to learn. This may mean working on your own, with a partner, or in a small group. I also expect that you communicate with me, your instructor, in a respectful manner as well.

Grade Appeals
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Website at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Disabilities Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Driftwood 101.

Veterans
If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
Statement of Academic Continuity
In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.
