Textbook
Klett: Aussichten A1.2 Deutsch als Fremdsprache für Erwachsene (Course- and Textbook as well as „Duolingo“ online practice required).

Course Description
This course is targeted towards students with basic knowledge of German. It is aimed at developing listening, speaking, writing and reading skills – from basic vocabulary, expressions and grammar to more elaborate ones – always within an authentic German cultural framework. The student will be able to develop an ability to function within natural contexts, relate and understand messages, as well as carry on a simple conversation in the German language.

Educational Objectives for Beginning German Language Learners
At the end of this course, students will demonstrate basic level ability (A1) to:

✓ Communicate in a range of authentic situations.
✓ Understand and use a variety of vocabulary and expressions in day-to-day situations.
✓ Understand and respond to oral, visual and written material.
✓ Demonstrate intercultural understanding and their role in social and institutional communication.

Attendance
Regular attendance and active class participation are essential for learning any foreign language. To better understand linguistic concepts and practice authentic phonetics in a motivating environment, you must be in class. You are expected to attend all classes, unless you have a properly documented excuse. Absences, tardies or leaving class early will affect your academic performance as well as your final grade.

After the third unexcused absence, and for every unexcused absence thereafter, you will lose 3 points (equals 3%) from your final average grade. Three late arrivals or leaving class early will equal ONE unexcused absence.
Please remember: Absences do not exempt you from material covered, assigned or due in class during your absence. Furthermore, it is your responsibility to provide written documentation no later than one (1) week after your absence(s) to be excused and permitted to make up any missing assignments. Please make sure to keep track of your absences and tardiness.

Participation

Participation is vital for your foreign language learning experience. To maximize your oral proficiency, practice and prepare before class. Complete the “Duolingo” exercises, review the assignment for the day, study vocabulary (Aussichten vocabulary app available for Android and I Phone) and volunteer to participate in class. We will work in pairs often to maximize opportunities to actively speak in the target language (games, role play, phonetic exercises, intensive course units, etc.). In addition or as a substitution to your weekly “Duolingo”, you may be asked to complete exercises in the workbook part of our course book. Your positive attitude and willingness to participate are key to success. Participation in class will be evaluated by your level of engagement in class, the general knowledge of material discussed, and the accuracy of your linguistic performance.

Remember: Practice makes perfect. Take action and participate – making mistakes is intrinsic to the learning process of a foreign language.

1. Weekly “Duolingo” assignments (See Addendum 1).

   You will complete your weekly assignments via “Duolingo”. “Duolingo” is a web-based assignment and assessment platform that helps you connect and intensify the coursework assigned by your instructor. It will consist of exercises related to units discussed in class, such as writing and listening exercises. You may complete these assignments at your own pace; as long as you finish them by Sunday at 9:00 pm. For more information about “Duolingo”, please ask your professor or check Blackboard announcements.

2. Composition/Oral Presentation (See Addendum 2).

   You will be asked to pair up with classmates to write and act out a dialogue in German during the semester (number of words TBA by your instructor). For your oral presentation, you and your partner will perform your German dialogue during class time.

   No late work will be accepted without prior consultation with your instructor.

3. Objective.

   Both written and oral components of assignments are designed to practice in depth concepts taught, reviewed in class during the semester. You are expected to use only the concepts covered in class up to the time of this assignment. If you feel like you are falling behind on class content taught or you are struggling with certain areas of instruction, please to not wait or hesitate to seek help as soon as possible.

   Exams: Exams are a vital part of your learning progress. These end of chapter and vocabulary exams give you a chance to assess your understanding of language concepts and to determine areas of difficulty. You will have two major exams during the semester (see “Kursprogramm” attached for exam dates). No make-up exams will be allowed under any circumstance, unless previously discussed with the professor.
4. Other expectations.

For the sake of a focused and positive learning environment, please keep distractions to a minimum. Eating is not allowed during instructional time, cell phones must be set on silent and put away (absolutely no checking your phones in class).

Visitors are not allowed in class, unless specifically permitted by the professor during office hours. Students are expected to follow the Student Code of Conduct as described by the University Student Handbook at all time. Students must demonstrate a considerate as well as kind demeanor towards their instructor and all fellow students.

Statement of Civility

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Disabilities Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Grade Appeals

As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C0.03, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C0.03, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at: http://academicaffairs.tamucc.edu/rules_procedures/assets/13.02.99.C0.03_student_grade_appeals.pdf.

Academic Advising

The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. Degree plans are prepared in the CLA Academic Advising Center. The University uses an online Degree Audit system. Any amendment must be approved by the Department Chair and the Office of the Dean. All courses and requirements specified in the final degree plan audit must be completed before a degree will be granted. The CLA Academic Advising Office is located in Driftwood #203. For more information please call 361-825-3466.

Dropping a Class

I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with your academic advisor, the Financial Aid Office, and me, before you decide to drop this course. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. The last day to drop a class for the spring semester is April 10, 2020.
Classroom/professional behavior

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, falsification, forgery, complicity or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.) In this class, academic misconduct or complicity in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment or test will result in failing the course as well as being reported to the department.

Academic Honesty/Plagiarism

Definition: In an instructional setting, plagiarism occurs when a writer deliberately uses someone else’s language, ideas, or other original (not common-knowledge) material without acknowledging its source. Plagiarism is a violation academic expectations, but it is sometimes difficult to understand what plagiarism actually is. Often, students commit unintentional plagiarism (not citing sources properly, for example), because they are unaware of the standards that apply. Plagiarism includes:

- Using the work of another as your own,
- Downloading or purchasing ready-made essays off the web and using them as your own,
- Using resource materials without correct documentation,
- Using the organization or language of a source without using quote marks and proper citation.
- Turning in a researched project without citing sources in an appropriate documentation style.

When you are confused about citation of quotes or ideas, please visit the Writing Center or me to get help. Information on MLA documentation rules and APA documentation rules is available at Purdue University’s OWL: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/, and from our local Writing Center at CASA.

Statement of Civility

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Statement of Academic Continuity

In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi, this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.
ADDENDUM 1  WEEKLY “Duolingo”  ONLINE ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments
Description: Duolingo assignments are to be completed every week, to the best of your ability. The assignments are a vital part of your coursework, not only because they represent 20% of your overall grade, but more importantly because they help you study, give you the necessary practice and focus to understand material taught in class and therefore strengthen your proficiency in the German language.

1. Tutoring services: Please ask your instructor for current information.
2. Computer proficiency skills: The mastery of “Duolingo” assignments requires that the student has a minimum of computer proficiency skills. If you do not know how to operate a computer or connect to the internet, please consult the Student Computer Help Desk for one-on-one tutorials.
3. Completion dates: You can find completion dates for each assignment in your syllabus. You have a complete week to finish the assignment. All weekly lab assignments MUST be completed no later than Sunday at 9:00 pm and the assignment completion results record on Monday. You may complete a late assignment for credit only under extraordinary circumstances after consulting your professor. Your professor must evaluate and approve your situation, then consult with a First Year Coordinator.
4. Material covered by assignments: Weekly “Duolingo” assignments as well as class assignments will practice vocabulary, grammar and phonics (written and oral) in an authentic cultural setting. If at any point you feel like you have problems understanding the material, do not keep it to yourself. Please discuss any issues with your instructor immediately. Your professor may refer you to a tutor, instruct tutoring during office hours or help with additional tips, exercises and material.
5. Helpful Websites: The following web pages have been provided to guide your journey to learn German, to research or draw additional information and practice.

This course program has been designed to help you learn German in a natural, fun and motivating class environment. It requires your best effort and positive attitude. Above all, my class is meant to be a great asset when it comes to intercultural understanding and useful skills while learning the German language and its diverse culture.

ADDENDUM 2

COMPOSITION/ORAL PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Description:

You will be asked to pair up with a classmate to write a German dialogue during the semester (the number of words and topics are TBD by your professor). For your oral presentation, you and your partner will perform the dialogue in an authentic situation during class time.

Notice: Absolutely no late work will be accepted without previously obtaining an agreement from your instructor.

Objective:

Both the written and the oral parts of your assignment are designed to reinforce and show off concepts taught, reviewed and practiced during the semester. You are expected to only use the concepts discussed in class up to the time of the assignment. To avoid any misunderstandings, please stick to the following guidelines:

- Write your entire dialogue in German.
- No heading.
- Dialogue must be typed, double spaced, with 1 inch margins on all sides. Please use Times New Roman font, size 12.
- Use sentence structures, tenses and vocabulary learned in class only.
- Avoid using online translators and/or friends – instead trust in what you have learned.

Guidelines:

1. Written component: Your work should be evidence of your performance in class. Please write it by yourselves, and in your own words at your own level. No more will be expected of you. Should your work not match your overall performance in class, your instructor will assume you relied on help from others or online translators and you will be asked to rewrite your dialogue. To follow the natural flow of language, please do not write your dialogue in English first and then translate into German. There are many sentence structures, expressions and sayings that do not translate literally between the two languages. Use grammar and vocabulary discussed in class and use short, basic sentence structure. It is most important for you to keep it simple, at your own level and that you write your dialogue yourselves.
   Always keep in mind that you will have to perform your dialogue in front of class.

2. Oral Presentation component: Practice your dialogues thoroughly with your classmate! Although 20 points seem much for this part of the assignments, keep calm and do not stress out about it. Avoid complicated sentences that are too long, since those will be more difficult to memorize and repeat. Again, keep it simple! If you do forget a vocabulary word during your presentation, please do not stop your dialogue. Just keep going and remember to demonstrate how well you are already able to communicate in the target language. At this level, only basic German is expected from you.

Dialogue Topic: The same topic as your composition topic. There will be at least two topics to choose from.
