Course Description and Prerequisites
This course is a survey of the political, social, economic, military, cultural and intellectual history of the United States before 1865. Rather than attempt to exhaustively cover all aspects of U.S. history from the period in question, this course focuses on moments of conflict that are either little known, often misunderstood, or which help to inform ongoing debates in the United States and beyond. Each week you will read a mix of scholarly and popular writing about the nation’s past alongside primary source material. I will lecture very little—mostly about collections of images that illustrate weekly themes— but the bulk of the class will focus on active learning, historical thinking, and reflecting on the ways in which people choose to remember the past.

Learning Outcomes or Course Objectives
Students who successfully complete this course will:
1. Demonstrate critical thinking by combining, changing, or reapplying existing information, gathering and assessing information relevant to a question, and analyzing, evaluating, and synthesizing information.
2. Develop communication skills by interpreting and expressing ideas through written, oral, or visual communication.
3. Demonstrate personal responsibility by evaluating historical choices and actions, and relating consequences to decision making.
4. Develop social responsibility by identifying intercultural competence and civic responsibility in past regional, national, and global communities.

Instructor Information:
Dr. Eric Covey (he/him/his)
361-825-3468
eric.covey@tamucc.edu
Office Location: FC 253E
Office Hours: M 2-3 pm; W 1-3 pm; T/Th 11 am-12 pm

Required Course Texts

Other readings are available online and hyperlinked in the digital version of this syllabus that is available on Blackboard. In addition, it may be useful to refer to The American Yawp, which is a collaborative U.S. history textbook available online for no cost.

You should come to every class having completed the day’s reading, and you MUST also be able to refer to the day’s reading in class. In some cases, excellent notes might suffice. But most likely you will need to be able to access to the internet in class. If this will be a problem for you, please talk to me as soon as you can.
Technology in the Classroom
Following the above directive, technology in the classroom is essential. You will need internet access every class. A phone will be okay, but a laptop or tablet will make your life easier. Still, while technology is essential, it is also a possible distraction. Use good judgment. For example, browsing a Wikipedia article about the history of salt is okay; watching a YouTube video of a fight at Whataburger is not okay. Your computer speakers should always be muted and headphones are not allowed in class. There should be NO telephone conversations during class and you should avoid distracting others by text messaging. Phones should be on silent or vibrate, and you should only answer your phone outside of class.

Assignments
Attendance, quizzes, in-class work: 50%
This course is a cooperative enterprise. Rather than acting as receptacles-of-knowledge, you will actively contribute to the course content. In other words, your participation is essential to the success of the class. There will be short lectures, but the bulk of class will be active learning and that only works if people are in class and participate. I will take attendance most days. If you are in class, you will receive one point. If you are not in class, you will not receive zero points. If you are absent from class due to university business or religious reasons, you must notify me in advance and you will receive neither a point nor a zero. On most class days, we will have quizzes or in-class projects and other work. Failure to take an unscheduled quiz or complete an in-class assignment will result in a zero. However, if you miss a quiz or in-class assignment for whatever reason, please talk to me in person and I can give you an alternative assignment to make up the points you missed. Keep in mind that projects and other work are more difficult on your own. In any case, you must complete make-up work within seven calendar days of returning to class.

Reading responses: 25%
You will read two full-length books this semester. This is not a capricious decision on my part, nor do I mean to make you suffer. Rather, I think reading—especially deep engagement with texts—yields important results at the level of both the personal and the social. To this end, we will talk about what it means to be a reader and the strategies you might adopt to make it through these two books and even enjoy them. Throughout the semester I will ask you to reflect in writing on your progress reading. Therefore, the points for this assignment are an aggregate of ten weekly reflections. I will provide you with additional guidelines in class for reflecting on your experience reading these books as well as a prompt for each reading reflection. Please note: a reading schedule and guide for your two books will be posted to Blackboard during week two.

PechaKucha Project in Groups: 25%
A PechaKucha is a very short presentation that requires much preparation and skill. For the purposes of this course, PechaKuchas will present historical content and demonstrate historical analytical skills in a fun, engaging way. We will watch examples of PechaKuchas in class, and the last three class meetings are dedicated to your presentations. Please note: you will receive a separate prompt for this assignment during week three.

Grading Scale
A = 90-100
B = 80-89
C = 70-79
D = 60-69
F = <60

Academic Advising
The College of Liberal Arts requires that students meet with an Academic Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. Degree plans are prepared in the CLA Academic Advising Center. The University uses an online Degree Audit system. Any amendment must be approved by the Department Chair and the Office of the Dean. All courses and requirements specified in the final degree plan audit must be completed before a degree will be granted. The CLA Academic Advising Office is located in Driftwood #203. For more information please call 361-825-3466.

Academic Integrity Statement and Policy
There are strong arguments for and against intellectual property. That said, the work you do in this course must be your own. If I suspect the work you submit is plagiarized, you will receive an F on the assignment—perhaps even an F in the course—and I will report you to the Office of the Associate Dean of Students. Please see the TAMUCC Academic Misconduct website for more details about how this all might go. We want very much to avoid paperwork, adjudication, and negative outcomes. Therefore all students are required to submit a written statement by the end of the second week of class verifying that they have reviewed and understood the TAMUCC Center for Academic Student Achievement Writing Center’s presentation on “Plagiarism and Misuse of Sources.”

Disabilities Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Corpus Christi Hall 116. If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

Dropping a Class
I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with your academic advisor, the Financial Aid Office, and me, before you decide to drop this course. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. The last day to drop a class for the spring semester is April 10, 2020.

Grade Appeals
As stated in University Procedure 13.02.99.C0.03, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see University Procedure 13.02.99.C0.03, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Dean’s office in the college in which the course is taught or the Office of the Provost. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at: http://academicaffairs.tamucc.edu/rules_procedures/assets/13.02.99.C0.03_student_grade_appeals.pdf.

Schedule
All readings are to be completed in order by the date listed.

Week 1: Introduction and Questions of History, history, Memory, and Myth
Wednesday: No reading

Week 2: American Exceptionalism: “Indian”
Monday: Read Kirsten Silva Gruesz, “America” from Keywords for American Cultural Studies. 2012.
Read Donald Pease, “Exceptionalism” from Keywords for American Cultural Studies. 2012.
Wednesday: Read Robert Warrior, “Indian” from Keywords for American Cultural Studies.

Week 3: Spanish Colonialism: Chocolate
Monday: Introduction to the PechaKucha
Wednesday: Read excerpts from The Journal of Christopher Columbus, “October 11,” “October 13,” and “October 14.” 1492.
Read excerpt from Bartolomé de Las Casas, History of the Indies. 1528.
Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #1 for Facing East from Indian Country

Week 4: English Settler Colonialism
Monday: Read David Kazanjian “Colonial” in Keywords for American Cultural Studies.
Wednesday:
Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #2 for Facing East from Indian Country

Week 5: The Transatlantic Slave Trade
Monday: Read selections from The Encyclopedia of the Middle Passage. Introduction xv-xxvi, Daily Schedule 130-131, Dancing and Exercise 132-133, Disease 138-140, Doctors and Surgeons 141-142, Enslavement and Procurement 152-157
Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #3 for Facing East from Indian Country

Week 6: The Frontier
Watch The Last of the Mohicans (1992) in class.
Wednesday 10/3: Finish The Last of the Mohicans.

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #4 for Facing East from Indian Country

Week 7: Resistance and Revolution I; PechaKucha
Monday: Read selection from Pontiac’s speeches in 1762 and 1763.
Read “The American Revolution” from The American Yawp.
Read Abigail Adams, from a letter to John Adams. 1776.
Read selections from petitions of slaves to the Massachusetts Legislature. 1773 and 1777.
Wednesday: PechaKucha workday in class.

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #5 for Facing East from Indian Country

Week 8: Spring Break
Monday: No class
Wednesday: No class

Week 9: The War with Tripoli
Monday: Read
Wednesday:

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #1 for Never Caught

Week 10: Political and Market Revolutions
Monday: Read James Madison, Address to Congress, 1815.
Read excerpt from “Factory Life as It Is, by an Operative.” 1845.
Wednesday: Reading TBA

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #2 for Never Caught

Week 11: Jacksonian America/ Resistance and Revolution II
Monday: Read “Democracy in America” from The American Yawp.
Wednesday: Read excerpt from David Walker’s Appeal, in Four Articles; Together with a Preamble, to the Coloured Citizens of the World, but in Particular, and Very Expressly, to Those of the United States of America, Written in Boston, State of Massachusetts, September 28, 1829

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #3 for Never Caught

Week 12: Resistance and Revolution III; PechaKucha
Monday: Read Rhode Islanders Protest Property Restrictions on Voting. 1834.
Read Black Philadelphians Defend their Voting Rights. 1838.
Wednesday: PechaKucha workday in class.

Due by 6 pm on Sunday: Reading Reflection #4 for Never Caught

Week 13: Immigration
Read “Alyshia Gálvez “Migration” from Keywords for American Cultural Studies.
Read front page of American Patriot. 1852
Wednesday: Read letter from William Dunne to John Curtis. 1851.
Read Pun Chi, “A Remonstrance from the Chinese in California to the Congress of the United States” [1860] from The American Yawp.

Week 14: The War with Mexico
Monday: Read “Manifest Destiny” from The American Yawp.
Wednesday: Reading TBA

Week 15: The Civil War
Monday: Read “The Civil War” from The American Yawp.
Wednesday: Reading TBA

Week 16: PechaKucha
Monday: Begin PechaKucha presentations
Wednesday: Continue PechaKucha presentations

Week 17: Finals Week
Finish PechaKucha presentations

Please note: this syllabus is subject to revision. In the case of changes, a revised syllabus will be posted to Blackboard and students will be notified via e-mail. It is your responsibility to keep your university e-mail address up to date.