XI. CLASS POLICIES

a. Attendance is required and expected. One (1) unexcused absence will be allowed for the semester and any unexcused absences after that will result in a deduction of two (2) points per absence from your FINAL grade. (Example 5 absences = 10 points lost.) Excused absences can be arranged with proper notification.
b. You are responsible for the material covered in class (i.e. assignments, skills) regardless if your absence is excused or not.

c. Exercise is a major part of this class, proper attire will be required (gym shoes, athletic shorts/sweat pants, and a t-shirt).

d. Not participating in class activities will constitute an unexcused absence.

e. Tardy

   Please do not come to class late. However, if you arrive within ten minutes of the class starting time, do so in an appropriate and polite manner.

f. Conditions that Affect Participation

   It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor if you have a condition that may impair or influence full participation in this class. Also, if your condition is severe enough to require special modifications to course requirements, students should contact the Students with Disabilities Office (361-825-5816).

XII. TEXTBOOK

   The textbook adopted for this course is:

   Delavier, Frederic; Gundill, Michael

   The Strength Training Anatomy Workout

XIII. BIBLIOGRAPHY

   The knowledge bases that support course content and procedures include: N/A.

XIV. GRADE APPEALS

   As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see the University Rule 13.02.99.C2, Student Grade Appeals, and University Procedure 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures. These documents are accessible through the University Rules Web site at http://www.tamucc.edu/provost/university_rules/index.html. For assistance and/or guidance in the grade appeal process, students may contact the Office of Student Affairs.

   Academic Honesty

   University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one's own work.) Disciplinary action for academic misconduct is the responsibility of the faculty member assigned to the course. The faculty member is charged with assessing the gravity of any case of academic dishonesty, and with giving sanction to any student involved. Penalties that may be applied to individual cases of academic dishonesty include one or more of the following:
1. Written reprimand;
2. Requirement to re-do work in question;
3. Requirement to submit additional work;
4. Lowering of grade on work in question;
5. Assigning grade of "F" to work in question;
6. Assigning grade of "F" for course;
7. Recommendation for more severe punishment.

(Taken from Texas A&M University Corpus Christi Graduate Catalog 2002-2003, pgs. 24-25; or Undergraduate Catalog 2002-2003, pgs. 35-36)

Dropping a class

I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with your academic advisor, the Financial Aid Office, and me, before you decide to drop this course to be sure it is the best thing to do. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class.

XV. DISABILITIES AND ACCOMODATIONS

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Driftwood 101.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.

- STATEMENT OF CIVILITY
  Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has a diverse student population that represents the population of the state. Our goal is to provide you with a high quality educational experience that is free from repression. You are responsible for following the rules of the University, city, state, and federal government. We expect that you will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of gender, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, age, sexual orientation, or disability. Behaviors that infringe on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

- CLASSROOM/PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR
  Texas A&M University - Corpus Christi, as an academic community, requires that each individual respect the needs of others to study and learn in a peaceful atmosphere. Under Article III of the Student Code of Conduct, classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor's ability to conduct class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program may be considered a breach of the peace and is subject to disciplinary sanction as outlined in article VII of the Student Code of Conduct. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior may be instructed to leave the classroom. This prohibition applies to all instructional forums, including classrooms, electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC CONTINUITY

In the event of an unforeseen adverse event, such as a major hurricane, and classes could not be held on the campus of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi; this course would continue through the use of Blackboard and/or email. In addition, the syllabus and class activities may be modified to allow continuation of the course. Ideally, University facilities (i.e., emails, web sites, and Blackboard) will be operational within two days of the closing of the physical campus. However, students need to make certain that the course instructor has a primary and a secondary means of contacting each student.
