Course Description
Learn what it means to be a student and member of the Texas A&M University - Corpus Christi community in the two-semester sequence of First-Year Seminar (FYS). FYS explores different facets of college knowledge for academic and social success. As the integrative engine of a learning community, FYS engages students in a collaborative learning experience. By attending learning community courses with students, FYS faculty facilitate meaningful connections between linked courses. FYS students gain confidence in their individual skills and develop abilities for use in the academic community and beyond. UCCP 1102 emphasizes student success after the first-year.

SEMINAR COURSE EVALUATION

PARTICIPATION AND ATTENDANCE – 30%
There is nothing we will do in class that is not important to your overall success in the learning community; therefore, attendance and participation are imperative. Missing class will affect your grade, as will not being prepared or not participating in a meaningful way. Students are expected to contribute to class discussions. To encourage attendance, individual and group exercises will be assigned during randomized class meetings through which I will evaluate your performance and engagement. Simply being present in class will not earn you full points for the day. I will take into account participation, preparedness, and promptness when considering this grade. You are allowed two absences. Use them well. After the second absence, any extra absences will affect your grade.

REFLECTIVE ASSIGNMENTS – 30%
Twice this semester, you will be asked to show evidence of learning by writing a reflective assignment. Each time you do so will be worth 15% of your overall grade. Your reflections will include specific examples and will be used to gauge your growth this semester.
“GET PSYCHED” INTEGRATED ASSIGNMENT – 20%
This assignment will count in both UCCP 1102 and PSYC 2301 and provide the basis for a polished in-class presentation. More information about this assignment and due dates will be provided in class. Please refer to the syllabi and online course websites for each other course in this learning community for more information. Please note that students who drop Seminar risk forfeiting the chance to earn points for the integrated assignment in the other courses in the learning community.

“GET PSYCHED” PRESENTATION – 10%
This assignment will count in both UCCP 1102 and PSYC 2301 and provide the basis for a possible presentation at First-Year Islander Conference on April 22 and 23. Please note that this grade is contingent on attendance at FYI Conference, which is mandatory. More information about this assignment will be provided in class.

ISLANDER COMMUNITY POINTS – 10%
Throughout the semester, there will be multiple opportunities for you to engage in and with the campus community. More information will be provided in Seminar regarding campus events, your responsibility to gain points, etc.

Online Schedule
A detailed schedule for this course can be found at:
http://melaniemoseley.pbworks.com/w/page/134803380/First-Year%20Seminar

Late Work
I will not accept late daily work assignments in Seminar because those assignments are, in essence, part of your attendance and participation grade. There will be no make-ups for missed daily grades. For major assignments, points will be deducted for every day that assignment is late. Please refer to your other LC faculty members’ syllabi regarding their late work and missed assignment policies.

E-Mail Communication
Consider e-mail to be official correspondence. All email correspondence will be sent to your Islander email and via Blackboard. Efforts will be made to address your message within 24 hours. If you do not receive an email within 24 hours, please send a follow-up email. Please note:

- No email correspondence on the day before an examination or deadline.
- E-mail communications should be about class business. E-mail is not the place for summaries of lectures, discussions, or readings, however.
- Please use the subject line in a way that indicates the content of the message. Please use professional language and include your full name and a complete inquiry in the body of the message. Unprofessional emails will result in non-response.
Electronic Device Policy
Please refrain from the use of electronic devices during class, as it is distracting to not only you, but also to your instructor and peers. Laptops will be permitted for particular activities as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Academic Honesty
University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possessions of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism.

Dropping a Class
I hope that you never find it necessary to drop this or any other class. However, events can sometimes occur that make dropping a course necessary or wise. Please consult with your academic advisor, the Financial Aid Office, and me before you decide to drop this course. Should dropping the course be the best course of action, you must initiate the process to drop the course by going to the Student Services Center and filling out a course drop form. Just stopping attendance and participation WILL NOT automatically result in your being dropped from the class. Friday, April 10 is the last day to drop a class with an automatic grade of “W” this term.

Grade Appeal Process
As stated in University Rule 13.02.99.C2.01, Student Grade Appeal Procedures, a student who believes that his or her final grade reflects academic evaluation which is arbitrary, prejudiced, or inappropriate in view of the standards and procedures outlined in this class syllabus may appeal the grade given for the course. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. If the student believes the matter is not satisfactorily resolved at the student-faculty level, an appeal of the final grade in the class may be submitted, in writing, to the First-Year Learning Communities Coordinator. For complete details, please visit: http://academicaffairs.tamucc.edu/rules_procedures/index.html.
